Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice Cara Krmpotich, Alice Stevenson, 2024-07-22 There is a common misconception that collections management in museums is a set of rote procedures or technical practices that follow universal standards of best practice This volume recognises collections management as a political critical and social project involving considerable intellectual labour that often goes unacknowledged within institutions and in the fields of museum and heritage studies Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice brings into focus the knowledges value systems ethics and workplace pragmatics that are foundational for this work Rather than engaging solely with cultural modifications such as Indigenous care practices the book presents local knowledge of place and material which is relevant to how collections are managed and cared for worldwide Through discussion of varied collection types management activities and professional roles contributors develop a contextualised reflexive practice for how core collections management standards are conceptualised negotiated and enacted Chapters span national museums in Brazil and Uganda to community led heritage work in Malaysia and Canada they explore complexities of numbering digitisation and description alongside the realities of climate change global pandemics and natural disasters The book offers a new definition of collections management travelling from what is done to care for collections to what is done to care for collections and their users Rather than use being an end goal it emerges as a starting point to rethink collections work

Naamiwan's Drum Maureen Matthews, 2017-01-06 Naamiwan's Drum follows the story of a famous Ojibwe medicine man his gifted grandson and remarkable water drum This drum and forty other artefacts were given away by a Canadian museum to an American Anishinaabe group that had no family or community connections to the collection Many years passed before the drum was returned to the family and only about half of the artefacts were ever returned to the museum Maureen Matthews takes us through this astonishing set of events from multiple perspectives exploring community and museum viewpoints visiting the ceremonial group leader in Wisconsin and finally looking back from the point of view of the drum The book contains a powerful Anishinaabe interpretive perspective on repatriation and on anthropology itself Containing fourteen beautiful colour illustrations Naamiwan's Drum is a compelling account of repatriation as well as a cautionary tale for museum professionals

Collection [4 Books] Rev. Francis E. Gigot, Aeterna Press, The Origin of the New Testament Adolf Harnack, 2004-03-17
Adolf Harnack viewed the formation of the Christian canon as a mixed blessing He was concerned about the exclusion of some early documents as well as the risks involved with Christianity becoming a religion of the book This volume engages these concerns and others with scholarly creativity Among other topics Harnack examines reasons for the inclusion of four gospels in the New Testament rather than one He concludes that the selection was a compromise between dominant churches each invested in a particular gospel This is classic Harnack and a true picture of the thought and mind of the last great 19th century theologian A Gentle Cynic Morris Jastrow (Jr.), 1919 A Gentle Cynic Morris Jastrow Jr., 2023-01-31 New Testament Studies Adolf von Harnack, 1925 Wisdom of the Kadam Masters Thupten Jinpa, 2013-03-26 For many Tibetans the phrase the Kadam masters evokes a spiritual golden age in Tibet an image of a community of simple monks devoted to humble rectitude in the service of others These Tibetan masters are particularly famed for their pithy spiritual sayings poignant utterances that capture essential teachings in digestible bites The sayings reveal an absence of confusion about what makes for a truly happy life one grounded in ethics love and insight borne of meditation The teachings of the Kadam masters have spiritually nourished the Tibetan people for nearly a millennium The Kadampa tradition began in the eleventh century with the arrival in Tibet of the Indian Bengali teacher Atisa who heralded a large scale revival of Buddhism there with a return to the basics Although these Tibetan teachings emerged nearly a thousand years ago within a specific historical cultural context like many of the world's great spiritual teachings the teachings of the Kadam masters embody wisdom that resonates beyond the boundaries of time culture and language To modern day Tibetan Buddhists this volume will offer in an accessible format some of the most loved teachings of the Tibetan tradition For practitioners of other religious traditions the texts collected in this special How the Bible was Formed James E. Trinit nd other institutions Dedications were also a political tool as the book reveals Many of Marenzio s dedications were made at the request of his employer Cardinal d Este who wanted to please his French allies Bizzarini examines these extra musical dimensions to Marenzio s work and discusses the composer s new musical directions under the more austere administration of Pope Clement VIII

Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage Jason M.

Gibson,2023-06-14 Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage examines how returned materials objects photographs audio and manuscripts are being received and reintegrated into the ongoing social and cultural lives of Aboriginal Australians Combining a critical examination of the making of these collections with an assessment of their contemporary significance the book exposes the opportunities and challenges involved in returning cultural heritage for the purposes of maintaining preserving or reviving cultural practice Drawing on ethnographic work undertaken with Aboriginal communities and the institutions that hold significant collections the author reveals important new insights about the impact of return on communities Technological advances combined with the push towards decolonising methodologies in Indigenous research have resulted in considerable interest in ensuring that collections of cultural value are returned to Indigenous communities Gibson challenges the rhetoric of museum repatriation arguing that while it has been tremendously important to advancing Indigenous interest it is too often over simplified Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage offers a timely critical perspective on current museum practice and its place within processes of cultural production and transmission The book is sure to resonate in other international contexts where questions about Indigenous re engagement and decolonisation strategies are being debated and will be of interest to students and scholars of Museum Studies Indigenous Studies and Anthropology The Musician ,1913 Hymns for Meditation Martha Mier,2005-05-03 Church pianists are often asked to provide music that is reflective and meditative in nature The six hymns in this collection by Martha Mier were chosen because of their beauty and for the messages of comfort and hope that they convey Titles In the Garden It Is Well with My Soul Near to The Heart of God Sweet Hour of Prayer Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus What A Friend We Have In Jesus
