Sacred Hunger:

Sacred Hunger Barry Unsworth, 2012-01-10 Winner of the Booker Prize A historical novel set in the eighteenth century Sacred Hunger is a stunning engrossing exploration of power domination and greed in the British Empire as it entered fully into the slave trade and spread it throughout its colonies Barry Unsworth follows the failing fortunes of William Kemp a merchant pinning his last chance to a slave ship his son who needs a fortune because he is in love with an upper class woman and his nephew who sails on the ship as its doctor because he has lost all he has loved The voyage meets its demise when disease spreads among the slaves and the captain's drastic response provokes a mutiny Joining together the sailors and the slaves set up a secret utopian society in the wilderness of Florida only to await the vengeance of the single minded young The Booker Prize and the Legacy of Empire Luke Strongman, 2021-12-28 This book is about the Booker Prize the London based literary award made annually to the best novel written in English by a writer from one of those countries belonging to or formerly part of the British Commonwealth The approach to the Prize is thematically historical and spans the award period to 1999 The novels that have won or shared the Prize in this period are examined within a theoretical framework mapping the literary terrain of the fiction Individual chapters explore themes that occur within the larger narrative formed by this body of novels collectively invoked cultures social trends and movements spanning the stages of imperial heyday and decline as perceived over the past three decades Individually and collectively the novels mirror often in terms of more than a single static image British imperial culture after empire contesting and reinterpreting perceptions of the historical moment of the British Empire and its legacy in contemporary culture The body of Booker novels narrates the demise of empire and the emergence of different cultural formations in its aftermath The novels are grouped for discussion according to the way in which they deal with aspects of the transition from empire to a post imperial culture from early imperial expansion through colonization retrenchment decolonization and postcolonial pessimism to the emergence of tribal nationalisms and post imperial nation states The focus throughout is primarily literary and contingently cultural British Slave Trade and Public Memory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2006 A provocative examination of the politics of memory and how a diverse culture remembers its complex history of racism The author explores these issues in this study and by incorporating a range of material she analyses how museum exhibits novels films and a play dealt with the subject of A Pirate of Exquisite Mind Diana Preston, 2009-05-26 Darwin took his books aboard the Beagle Swift and Defoe slavery used his experiences as inspiration in writing Gulliver's Travels and Robinson Crusoe Captain Cook relied on his observations while voyaging around the world Coleridge called him a genius and a man of exquisite mind In the history of exploration nobody has ventured further than Englishman William Dampier Yet while the exploits of Cook Shackleton and a host of legendary explorers have been widely chronicled those of perhaps the greatest are virtually invisible today an omission that Diana and Michael Preston have redressed in this vivid compelling biography As a young man Dampier spent several years in the swashbuckling company of buccaneers in the Caribbean At a time when surviving one voyage across the Pacific was cause for celebration Dampier ultimately journeyed three times around the world his bestselling books about his experiences were a sensation influencing generations of scientists explorers and writers He was the first to deduce that winds cause currents and the first to produce wind maps across the world surpassing even the work of Edmund Halley He introduced the concept of the sub species that Darwin later built into his theory of evolution and his description of the breadfruit was the impetus for Captain Bligh's voyage on the Bounty Dampier reached Australia 80 years before Cook and he later led the first formal expedition of science and discovery there A Pirate of Exquisite Mind restores William Dampier to his rightful place in history one of the pioneers on whose insights our understanding of the natural world was built The Seven Deadly Sins Richard Newhauser, 2007 These essays examine the seven deadly sins as cultural constructions in the Middle Ages and beyond focusing on the way concepts of the sins are used in medieval communities the institution of the Church and by secular artists and authors The Historical Novel, Transnationalism, and the Postmodern Era Susan Brantly, 2017-02-17 This volume explores the genre of the historical novel and the variety of ways in which writers choose to represent the past How does an author's nationality or gender impact their artistic choices To what extent can historical novels appeal to a transnational audience This study demonstrates how histories can communicate across national borders often by invoking or deconstructing the very notion of nationhood Furthermore it traces how the concerns of the postmodern era such as postmodern critiques of historiography colonialism identity and the Enlightenment have impacted the genre of the historical novel and shows this impact has not been uniform throughout Western culture Not all historical novels written during the postmodern era are postmodern. The historical novel as a genre occupies a problematic vet significant space in Cold War literary currents torn between claims of authenticity and the impossibility of accessing the past Historical novels from England America Germany and France are compared and contrasted with historical novels from Sweden testing a variety of theoretical perspectives in the process This pitting of a center against a periphery serves to highlight traits that historical novels from the West have in common but also how they differ The historical novel is not just a local regional phenomenon but has become during the postmodern era a transnational tool for exploring how we should think of nations and nationalism and what a society should or should not look like The Hide Barry Unsworth, 1996 The second narrator is Josh of gypsy background A naif he has unpolished artistic talent While working at a game booth at a fair he meets up with Mortimer older self assured and demanding When Josh takes a job as a gardener at Audrey's home Mortimer tries to A History of the Booker Prize Merritt Moseley, 2021-08-30 In this book Merritt Moseley consolidate his bond with Josh offers a brief history of the Booker Prize since 1992 With a short chapter covering each year we follow the change in criteria the highs and lows short lists winners and controversies of the Booker Prize The book also functions as an example of literary criticism for each of the books involved analyzing the judging process and the winning books Exploring themes such as
