Sacrificed Lives Kristeva On Women And Violence:

Sacrificed Lives Martha J. Reineke, 1997-10-22 Why did medieval women mystics starve themselves What caused the European witch hunts and why were its victims tortured and killed Why has the Christian West regularly found maternal figures threatening To answer these questions Martha Reineke advances a theory of sacrifice inspired by Julia Kristeva and Rene Girard that attempts to account for violence in Western culture the human proclivity for bodily mutilation and abuse and women's special vulnerability to violence A challenging and controversial book Sacrificed Lives constructs an important bridge between esoteric postmodern theory and ordinary human life as it furthers a vital philosophical debate on the question of violence

Women, Ideology and Violence Cheryl Anderson, 2006-01-01 Cheryl Anderson examines the laws relating to women that are found in the Book of the Covenant and the Deuteronomic law She argues that the laws can be divided into those that treat women similarly to men defined as inclusive laws and those that treat women differently exclusive laws She then suggests that the exclusive laws which construct gender as male dominance female subordination do not just describe violence against women but are inherently violent toward women As a non historical critique of ideology critical theory is used to offer analytical insights that have significant implications for understanding gender constructions in both ancient and contemporary settings

The Cruellest of All Mothers Mary Dunn, 2015-10-01 In 1631 Marie Guyart stepped over the threshold of the Ursuline convent in Tours leaving behind her eleven year old son Claude against the wishes of her family and her own misgivings Marie concluded God was dearer to me than all that Leaving him therefore in His hands I bid adieu to him joyfully Claude organized a band of schoolboys to storm the convent begging for his mother's return Eight years later Marie made her way to Quebec where over the course of the next thirty three years she opened the first school for Native American girls translated catechisms into indigenous languages and served some eighteen years as superior of the first Ursuline convent in the New World She would also maintain over this same period an extensive and intimate correspondence with the son she had abandoned to serve God The Cruellest of All Mothers is fundamentally an explanation of Marie de l'Incarnation's decision to abandon Claude for religious life Complicating Marie's own explication of the abandonment as a sacrifice carried out in imitation of Christ and in submission to God's will the book situates the event against the background of early modern French family life the marginalization of motherhood in the Christian tradition and seventeenth century French Catholic spirituality Deeply grounded in a set of rich primary sources The Cruellest of All Mothers offers a rich and complex analysis of the abandonment

Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva's influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva's fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project

Theorizing Sexual Violence Renée J. Heberle, Victoria Grace, 2009-09-11 Examining sexual violence the authors of this volume take up questions about the relationship between sex sexuality and violence to better understand the terms on which women's sexual suffering is perpetuated thereby undermining their capacity for personhood and autonomy

Women and the Divine G. Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nationbuilding processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics Ana-María Rizzuto and the

Psychoanalysis of Religion Martha J. Reineke, David M. Goodman, 2017-08-24 Ana Mar a Rizzuto s groundbreaking explorations of the formation of God representations in early childhood and their elaboration throughout the life cycle have made their mark enriching the practice of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy as well as scholarship within the psychoanalytic study of religion Accompanied by illuminating commentaries by Rizzuto the authors of this edited collection essays in this volume underscore Rizzuto s most important contribution to clinical practice rather than assert that psychoanalysis is incompatible with religious beliefs and practices or with spiritual concerns that patients may bring to a therapeutic context Rizzuto makes room for the coexistence of psychoanalysis and religion in the therapeutic setting Demonstrating how Rizzuto s work has enhanced connections within and among psychoanalytic theories of religion established pathways for new developments in psychotherapy and facilitated interdisciplinary conversations this volume showcases the compelling power of Rizzuto s work and its ongoing influence Abjectly Boundless Professor Dave Holmes, Professor Trudy

Rudge, 2012-12-28 Within a variety of practice environments health professionals often experience feelings of disgust and repulsion towards the presence of an abject object Cadaverous sick disabled bodies troubled minds wounds vomit and so forth are all part of health and care work and threaten the clean and proper bodies of those who undertake it yet this unclean side of health work is rarely accounted for in academic literature This volume employs the work of Julia Kristeva through a range of case studies drawn from care and nursing settings around the world It brings together work from researchers and practitioners within the social and health sciences the caring professions and psychotherapy to expose and highlight the important impact of the concept of abjection which historically has been silenced in the health sciences An Introduction to Biblical Law Morrow, William, 2017 Informed accessible textbook on law collections in the Pentateuch In this book William Morrow surveys four major law collections in Exodus Deuteronomy and shows how they each enabled the people of Israel to create and sustain a community of faith Treating biblical law as dynamic systems of thought facilitating ancient

Israel's efforts at self definition Morrow describes four different social contexts that gave rise to biblical law 1 Israel at the holy mountain the Ten Commandments 2 Israel in the village assembly Exodus 20 22 23 19 3 Israel in the courts of the Lord priestly and holiness rules in Exodus Leviticus and Numbers and 4 Israel in the city Deuteronomy Including forthright discussion of such controversial subjects as slavery revenge gender inequality religious intolerance and contradictions between bodies of biblical law Morrow's study will help students and other serious readers make sense out of texts in the Pentateuch that are often seen as obscure For René Girard Sandor Goodhart, Jorgen Jorgensen, Tom Ryba, James Williams, 2012-01-01 In his explorations of the relations between the sacred and violence Ren Girard has hit upon the origin of culture the way culture began the way it continues to organize itself The way communities of human beings structure themselves in a manner that is different from that of other species on the planet Like Albert Einstein Sigmund Freud mile Durkheim Martin Buber or others who have changed the way we think in the humanities or in the human sciences Girard has put forth a set of ideas that have altered our perceptions of the world in which we function We will never be able to think the same way again about mimetic desire about the scapegoat mechanism and about the role of Jewish and Christian scripture in explaining sacrifice violence and the crises from which our culture has been born The contributions fall into roughly four areas of interpretive work religion and religious study literary study the philosophy of social science and psychological studies The essays presented here are offered as essays in the older French sense of attempts essayer or trials of ideas as indeed Girard has tried out ideas with us With a conscious echo of Montaigne then this homage volume is titled Essays in Friendship and in Truth The subject of love Sal Renshaw, 2013-07-19 The Subject of Love H l ne Cixous and the Feminine Divine is about abundant generous other regarding love In the history of Western ideas of love such a configuration has been inseparable from our ideas about divinity and the sacred often reserved only for God and rarely thought of as a human achievement This book is a substantial engagement with her philosophies of love inviting the reader to reflect on the conditions of subjectivity that just might open us to something like a divine love of the other Renshaw follows this thread in this genealogy of abundant love the thread that connects the subject of love from 5th century B C E Greece and Plato to the 20th century protestant theology of agapic love of Anders Nygren to the late 20th century poetico philosophy of H l ne Cixous This study will be of particular interest to academics and students of the history of gender cultural studies criticism and gender studies Off the Menu Rita Nakashima Brock, 2007-01-01 Asian American Christianity is one of the fastest growing forms of American Christianity and it has already proven to be one of the richest and most innovative movements in North American religion With a deep understanding of their roots in classic Christianity as well as the diversity of Asian culture these theological voices have contributed some of the freshest and most provocative work of recent decades This volume brings together women who are searching for authentic Christian dialogue in a world of hybridity and changing context and it represents one of the most significant areas of growth and vitality in contemporary Christianity Cinema, Suffering and

Psychoanalysis Laura Stephenson, 2023-12-14 Cinema Suffering and Psychoanalysis explores psychological disorder as common to the human condition using a unique three angled approach psychoanalysis recognises the inherent suffering encountered by each subject due to developmental phases psychology applies specific categorisation to how this suffering manifests cinema depicts suffering through a combination of video and aural elements Functioning as a culturally reflexive medium the six feature films analysed including Black Swan 2010 and The Machinist 2004 represent some of the most common psychological disorders and lived experiences of the contemporary era This book enters uncharted terrain in cinema scholarship by combining clinical psychology's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual Five DSM V to organise and diagnose each character and psychoanalysis to track the origin mechanism and affect of the psychological disorder within the narrative trajectory of each film Lacan's theories on the infantile mirror phase the Imaginary and the Symbolic and Freud's theories on the Real the big Other and the Event and Kristeva's theories on abjection and melancholia work in combination with the DSM's classification of symptoms to interpret six contemporary pieces of cinema By taking into consideration that origin mechanism affect and symptomatology are part of an interconnected group this book explores psychological disorder as part of the human condition something which contributes to and informs personal identity More specifically this research refutes the notion that psychological disorder and psychological health exist as a binary instead recognising that what has traditionally been pathologised may instead be viewed as variations on human identity René Girard and Creative

Mimesis Vern Neufeld Redekop, Thomas Ryba, 2013-11-21 For half a century René Girard's theories of mimetic desire and scapegoating have captivated the imagination of thinkers and doers in many fields as an incisive look into the human condition particularly the roots of violence In a 1993 interview with Rebecca Adams he highlighted the positive dimensions of mimetic phenomena without expanding on what they might be Now two decades later this groundbreaking book systematically explores the positive side of mimetic theory in the context of the multi faceted world of creativity Several authors build on Adams insight that loving mimesis can be understood as desiring the subjectivity of the other particularly when the other may be young or wounded With highly nuanced arguments authors show how mimetic theory can be used to address child and adult development including the growth of consciousness and a capacity to handle complexity Mimetic theory is brought to bear on big questions about creativity in nature evolutionary development originality and religious intrusion into politics Bloody Living Rhona Trench, 2010 This book deals with the process of negotiation with the past in the present through the plays of Marina Carr The title frames the work connoting the path towards destruction and the sense of lethargy acquired along the way The book offers an in depth and extensive reading of Carr's plays In doing so it surveys some of the destructive issues represented in the works and provides a series of social and cultural contexts to which the concerns in the works are related Carr is best known for her trilogy The Mai Portia Coughlan and By the Bog of Cats and more recently Woman and Scarecrow The Cordelia Dream and Marble The plays are regularly concerned with notions of identity in the context of self destruction self estrangement and displacement This book applies Julia Kristeva s theory of abjection to Carr s plays in an effort to structure the loss the author identifies in the works Themes of memory history and myth are examined in the context of these concerns in provocative and confrontational ways Contingency, Immanence, and the Subject of Rhetoric Timothy Richardson, 2013-08-14 Contingency Immanence and the Subject of Rhetoric considers rhetoric as the historical counterpoint of philosophical and religious discourses via its correspondences with antique rabbinic exegetical practices and contemporary psychoanalytic insights into causation Timothy Richardson takes up the rabbinic position to demonstrate how traditional Greco Christian rhetoric might be insufficient to account for what we now mean by rhetoric as a discipline
