This is the story of Euro 88, the largest football event on the continent, and the Irish team are front and center. The excitement is high for football fanatics like Eoin Shane and Mick, all working abroad. Supporting the Irish team in Germany, they witness the highs and the lows and the cultural divides that separate fans. For these emigrant friends, home is no longer a birthplace. Home is where their team plays, and there will be many adventures on and off the field before the final whistle blows. Included in this first Open Door is A Poet's Notebook, a selection of short poems about ordinary life by the author with his notes on how they were written.
