After the first four volumes, the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture. The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church. Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today's Church. Additionally, each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon which makes it a practical guide for pastors.

Preserving a Reformed Heritage John W. Keddle, 2016-11-15 This is the story of the Free Church of Scotland in the 20th Century. It outlines the life and witness of the Church throughout the century, dealing with some of the issues which faced the Church in that period. A companion volume entitled A Divided Church provides an account of the division which occurred in the Free Church of Scotland in 2000, a division that led to the emergence of the Free Church of Scotland Continuing. This is not an exhaustive history, nor is it an official one. It is in the nature of Aspects of the History of the Free Church of Scotland in the 20th Century. The Free Church itself reflected a confessional, evangelical and reformed position throughout the century, though not without testing times, not least right at the end of the century.

Century British Secularism rethinks and reevaluates the significance of Holyoake's Secularism regarding it as a historic moment of modernity and granting it centrality as both a herald and exemplar for a new understanding of modern secularity. In addition to Secularism proper, the book treats several other moments of secular emergence in the nineteenth century, including Thomas Carlyle's natural supernaturalism, Richard Carlile's anti-theist science advocacy, Charles Lyell's uniformity principle in geology, Francis Newman's naturalized religion or primitive Christianity, and George Eliot's secularism and post-secularism.

Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes Brendan Reed, 2018 Catholic institutions today are faced with the challenge of redefining themselves within a context of growing pluralisation and detraditionalisation. Following the empirical work on Catholic School identity, Identity in Dialogue, this book attends to the institution of the parish. Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes offers a theoretical framework for parish life in a new context. It introduces a new diagnostic tool, the Searching for Parish Engagement Scale, and it proposes four models for parish life today: the convinced parish, the engaged parish, the devoted parish, and the consumerist parish. Brendan Reed is a parish priest in the Archdiocese of Melbourne, Australia. He is adjunct lecturer at Catholic Theological College, University of Divinity.

The New Cambridge Modern History Peter Burke, 1979 Annotation: A comprehensive examination of the political, economic, social, and cultural development of the world from 1493 to 1945.

Religion, Equalities, and Inequalities Dawn Llewellyn, Sonya Sharma, 2016-07-22 Presenting cutting-edge research on how religion can confront and obscure social inequalities in everyday life, Religion, Equalities, and Inequalities argues that when religion is left out of social scientific analyses, it can result in incomplete analyses that conceal pathways to social inclusion and exclusion. Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary group of contributors who operate at the vanguard of theoretical and empirical work on how social structures of power, institutions, and bodies can generate equalities and inequalities in religion, the collection shows how religion can enable and challenge the inequities that affect people's everyday lives. Academics and students of religious studies, sociology, politics, and social policy will all find this book offers useful insights into the relationship between religion and contemporary culture.
