Writing Feminist Lives Malin Lidström Brock, 2017-05-05 This book draws attention to the controversy that surrounds Betty Friedan Germaine Greer Gloria Steinem and Simone de Beauvoir's lives and the important role that their life stories have played in their feminist writing Directly and indirectly the four women have contributed to battles over feminism's meaning through autobiographically informed political writing Inevitably therefore their biographers are also participants in these battles yet not always on the same side as their subjects Writing Feminist Lives introduces a further fold of nuance into considerations of biography and feminism by showing that the biographers of the four women have made methodological choices that reflect their loyalty to or their scepticism towards competing ideological definitions of the exemplary feminist life

How to Make It as a Woman Alison Booth, 2004-11-25 Publisher Description Too Far for Comfort Rana Tekcan, 2014-08-01 The dynamic between the biographer and the subject is perhaps one of the most fascinating aspects of biography as a genre How does the biographer stage the illusion that is the narrative life the illusion that the subject assumes a living form through words In contrast to purely fictional forms biography writing does not allow total freedom to the biographer in this creative act Ideally a biography's backbone is structured by accurate historical facts But its spirit lies elsewhere The way a biographer captures the spirit of a subject is intriguingly shaped by the historical distance between the two We find three types of distance in biographical narrative First where the biographer and the subject personally know one another second where the biographer is a near contemporary of the subject and third where biographer and subject are distinctly separated in some cases by hundreds of years In this revised and expanded edition Rana Tekcan explores how some of the most accomplished biographers manage to recreate life across time and space She looks at their illusionary art through the narrative strategies in Samuel Johnson's Life of Savage James Boswell's Life of Johnson Lytton Strachey's Eminent Victorians Michael Holroyd's Lytton Strachey Park Honan's Jane Austen and Andrew Motion's Keats

The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms, Emily Gioielli, 2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History The Novel in German since 1990 Stuart Taberner, 2011-09-01 Diversity is one of the defining characteristics of contemporary German language literature not just in terms of the variety of authors writing in German today but also in relation to theme form technique and style However common themes emerge the Nazi past transnationalism globalisation migration religion and ethnicity gender and sexuality and identity This book presents the novel in German since 1990 through a set of close readings both of international bestsellers including Daniel Kehlmann's Measuring the World and W G Sebald's Austerlitz and of less familiar but important texts such as Yad Kara's Selam Berlin Each novel discussed in the volume has been chosen on account of its aesthetic quality its impact and its representativeness the authors featured among them Nobel Prize winners G nter Grass Elfriede Jelinek and Herta and Paul Amirani demonstrate the energy and quality of contemporary writing in German Thinking through the Mothers

Janet Beizer, 2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women's biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bioautography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women's salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy

Marian Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn, 2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel's forty nine notebooks notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel's creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer The notebooks also portray Engel's surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death Christl Verduyn's illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada's significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature

Displacement, Identity and Belonging Alexandra J. Cutcher, 2015-04-27 Displacement Identity and Belonging is a book about difference It deals with ethnicity migration place marginalisation memory and constructions of the self The arts based and auto biographical performance of the many voices in the text compliment and interrupt each other to create a polyvocal rendition of experience The text unfolds through fiction memoir legend artworks photographs poetry and theory historical cultural and political perspectives As such it is a book that confronts what an academic text can be Written in the present tense it weaves its narrative around one small Hungarian migrant family in Australia who are not particularly special or extraordinary Their experience may appear at least on first blush to be paralleled by the post war diasporic experience for a range of nations and peoples However in many ways this is not necessarily so It is this crucial aspect of the idiosyncrasies of difference that is at the core of this work The layering of stories and artworks build upon each other in an engaging and accessible reading that appeals to a multitude of audiences and purposes The book makes significant contributions to the literature on qualitative research and in particular to arts based research auto biographical research and autoethnographic research Displacement Identity and Belonging is in itself an experience of journey in the reading powerfully demonstrating a life forever in transit This work can be used as a core reading in a range of courses in education teacher education ethnicity studies cultural studies sociology psychology history and communication or simply for pleasure Displacement Identity and Belonging offers an excellent example of the use of novel approaches to social research that are designed to raise important questions and provide unique insights The multigenerational perspective of Hungarian migrants to and immigrants in Australia disclosed and examined herein is not merely a fascinating and urgent topic in itself It also encourages and enables the reader to imagine analogous social phenomena in other places and times This fact in conjunction with an extraordinarily effective format is what makes this for readers of all sorts an important and empowering book one that I heartily recommend Tom Barone Professor Emeritus Arizona State University USA Dr Alexandra Cutcher is a multi award winning academic at Southern Cross University Australia Her research focuses on what the Arts can be and do educationally expressively as research method language catharsis reflective instrument and documented form These understandings inform Alexandra s teaching and her spirited advocacy for Arts education
