The No-Fail
Method for Children and Adults

Lude Cossette

"Struggling with times tables often hinders progress in math. Mrs. Cossette's method is simple, consistent and memorable. A book for parents and teachers who want to help kids learn their times tables and for adults who want to improve their own math skills."

Survival of the Heart Tragedy of the Mind Dwight N. Wood Sr, 2013-04 After a life that has spanned more than six decades Dwight N Wood Sr now provides an intensely painful but transparent account of his story starting from birth and leading to the present day He always attempted to hide away the damaging scars of a major heart surgery and the sometimes cruel events prompted by poverty It was his choice to cover up and contain his deepest emotions within his heart and mind Survival of the Heart Tragedy of the Mind is a spiritual and surprising story of medical survival and human tragedy Wood characterizes his most detailed memories of his childhood and the sacrifices of his family which always supported his dreams of living a normal life After he became an adult he once again faced the demons of his past physical and mental battles He recounts the hardships associated with despair dying and death He expresses the mental struggles of living in the past while not looking toward the present and future The emotional and monetary costs of failing to seek professional guidance nearly led to his demise Wood admits to the consequences of being a man who has had to deal with denial and rejection His book is about learning the lessons of life and making the confusing connections between commonsense and poor judgment He rationalizes the reasons we should embrace love and forgive people The crucial decisions he made as a child and an adult now allow him to complete his circle of life Survival of the Heart Tragedy of the Mind is an intimate portrayal of a very emotional boy who develops into a mentally quick and capable man His often hopeful approach to overcoming human miseries is highlighted by his failures as well as his victories From his youthful days to his elderly years he suffered from a congenital heart abnormality and eventually developed post traumatic stress disorder His lifelong search for the answers to human love spiritual happiness and the true meaning of human life eventually leads him to some remarkable solutions with noteworthy conclusions

Providing a Foundation for Teaching Mathematics in the Middle Grades Judith Sowder,Bonnie P. Schappelle,1995-08-03 This book is written primarily for middle grade teachers who are discovering that they now want to teach in ways that create positive mathematical learning environments and instigate rich classroom discourse Many of these teachers are finding that their mathematical preparation did not address the complexities underlying the mathematics they now want to teach In Part One the authors provide a foundation for the mathematics of these grades particularly the mathematics that grows out of concepts of number quantity and arithmetic operations In Part Two through three case studies the authors demonstrate to teachers how a deeper understanding of the mathematics they teach can enhance classroom instruction The book interweaves research and classroom practice Mathematics teacher educators researchers curriculum developers textbook authors and supervisors of mathematics programs will find this book to be useful Teachers both prospective and practicing will benefit most from this book when the chapters are used as catalysts for discussion in classes or professional development programs

A Heart for the Community John Fuder,Noel Castellanos,2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community

New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal. These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations. Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities, economic development strategies, and more. As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest, tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise. The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable, vibrant models of ministry that make a difference.
