The Wisdom of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj

Edited by Jean Dunn

The wisdom contained in this collection, edited by Jean Dunn, emerged from dialogues with those who came from all over the world to learn the mysteries of life at the feet of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj, one of the most revered holy men of India.

The residence of this renowned spiritual guide was a tiny room in a crowded and noisy street in Bombay. Maurice Frydman, who immortalized Maharaj's teachings in the first collection of the dialogues, I AM THAT, in 1973, vividly describes the man and his surroundings: "In the humble abode of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj, but for the electric lights and the noises of the street traffic, one would not know in which period of human history one dwells. There is an atmosphere of timelessness about this tiny room; the subjects discussed are timeless—valid for all times. The way they are expounded and examined is also timeless . . . one deals with matters immensely ancient and eternally new . . . Whence came it? What am I? Whether go I? Such questions have no beginning and will never end. And it is crucial to know the answers, for without the full understanding of oneself, both in time and in timelessness, life is but a dream, imposed upon us by powers we do not know, for purposes we cannot grasp."

Maharaj's admonition to "be" and to know what one "is"—in the sense of timeless being—emerges from these dialogues and will touch the lives of many for a long time to come. The conversations recorded by Jean Dunn, an ardent follower of Maharaj, in Seeds of Consciousness and a companion volume, Prior to Consciousness, make an invaluable contribution to the body of his spiritual testament. These conversations continue to provide insights for modern man in his spiritual journeys, leading him out of suffering and sorrow.

Thich Nhat Hanh pulls from 50 classic Buddhist verses to present the basic teachings of Buddhist applied psychology exploring the true nature of our feelings and perceptions Based on the 50 verses on the nature of consciousness taken from the great 5th century Buddhist master Vasubandhu and the teachings of the Avatamsaka Sutra Thich Nhat Hanh focuses on the direct experience of recognizing embracing and looking deeply into the nature of our feelings and perceptions Presenting the basic teachings of Buddhist applied psychology Understanding Our Mind shows us how our mind is like a field where every kind of seed is planted seeds of suffering anger happiness and peace The quality of our life depends on the quality of the seeds in our mind If we know how to water seeds of joy and transform seeds of suffering then understanding love and compassion will flower Vietnamese Zen Master Thuong Chieu said When we understand how our mind works the practice becomes easy Love's Garden Peggy Rowe-Ward,Larry Ward,2008-05-10 A collection of real life Buddhist love stories with commentary and guided exercises for couples developed by Peggy Rowe Ward and Larry Ward senior students and ordained Dharma teachers in the tradition of Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh These personal stories from couples of a range of different ages and experiences illustrate how Buddhist principles can help couples navigate any stage of their relationship It took the authors some good living and good loving before they realized that the love that they were seeking was already present and available in the depths of their hearts and mind Love does not depend on anything that is happening Out There and is not dependent on anything he or she might do It depends on our own willingness to look within and to act This insight is a result of practicing the teachings of the Buddha on right diligence and right effort The authors have been studying and practicing with Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and they are happy to report that the practices work In iLove s Garden the authors offer key practices such as The Three Keyes see excerpt for the transformation of suffering and the establishment of happiness These practices have helped them see each other s happiness as their own They share stories and illustrations from their own life and also and those of their friends and students brbrThe practice is not difficult We simply need to get in touch with and nourish the practices that are helping us to experience peace And then we need to stop doing the things that keep us from experiencing peace Larry Ward Science and Philosophy in the Indian Buddhist Classics, Vol. 3 Thupten Jinpa,2022-12-13 Deepen your understanding of meaning and truth with the third volume of the Dalai Lama s esteemed series Science and Philosophy in the Indian Buddhist Classics Science and Philosophy in the Indian Buddhist Classics compiles classical Buddhist explorations of the nature of the material world the human mind reason and liberation and puts them into context for the modern reader This ambitious four volume series a major resource for the history of ideas and especially the history of science and philosophy has been conceived by and compiled under the visionary supervision of His Holiness the Dalai Lama himself It is his view that the exploratory thinking of the great masters of classical India still has much that is of interest to us today whether we are Buddhist or not These volumes make those insights accessible In this third volume the focus turns to exploring the philosophical schools of India The practice of presenting the views of various schools of philosophy dates back to the first millennium in India when proponents of competing traditions would arrange the diverse sets of philosophical positions in a hierarchy culminating in their own school's superior tenets Centuries later relying on the Indian Buddhist treatises Tibet developed its own tradition of works on tenets grub mtha often centered on the four schools of Buddhist philosophy using them to demonstrate the philosophical evolution within their own tradition and within individual practitioners as they progressed through increasingly more subtle expressions of the true reality The present work follows in this venerable tradition but with a modern twist Like its predecessors it presents the views of seven non Buddhist schools those of the Samkhya Vaisesika Nyaya Mimamsa Vedanta Jaina and Lokayata followed by the Buddhist Vaibhasika Sautrantika Cittamatra and Madhyamaka schools arranging them like steps on a ladder to the profound But rather than following in the sharply polemical approach of its ancient predecessors it strives to survey each tradition authentically relying on and citing the texts sacred to each allowing the different traditions to speak for themselves What it asks are the basic components of the world we experience What is the nature of their ultimate reality And how can we come to experience that for ourselves See how the rich spiritual traditions of India approached these key questions where they agreed and how they evolved through dialogue and debate This presentation of philosophical schools is introduced by His Holiness and is accompanied by an extensive introduction and survey by Professor Donald Lopez Jr of the University of Michigan who is uniquely qualified to communicate the scope and significance of this literary and spiritual heritage to modern readers
