Seeking The Past:

Enquiring of the Fathers, Or, Seeking Wisdom from the Past Francis Parkman, 1839 Seeking a Future for the Past Philipp Demgenski, 2024-02-19

Seeking a Future for the Past Space Power and Heritage in a Chinese City examines the complexities and changing sociopolitical dynamics of urban renewal in contemporary China. Drawing on ten years of ethnographic fieldwork in the northeastern Chinese city of Qingdao, the book tells the story of the slow, fragmented, and contentious transformation of Dabaodao, an area in the city's former colonial center, from a place of common homes occupied by the urban poor into a showcase of architectural heritage and site for tourism and consumption. The ethnography provides a nuanced account of the diverse experiences and views of a range of groups involved in shaping and being shaped by the urban renewal process: local residents, migrant workers, preservationists, planners, and government officials, foregrounding the voices and experiences of marginal groups such as migrants in the city. Unpacking structural reasons for urban developmental impasses, it paints a nuanced local picture of urban governance and political practice in contemporary urban China. Seeking a Future for the Past also weighs the positives and negatives of heritage preservation and scrutinizes the meanings and effects of preservation on diverse social actors. By zeroing in on the seemingly contradictory yet coexisting processes of urban stagnation and urban destruction, the book reveals the multifaceted challenges that China faces in reforming its urbanization practices and ultimately in managing its urban future.
