Sefer Ha-Hinnuch, 1989-07-01 The Art of Education Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh, 2005 With so much information readily available today the educators role must go beyond simply transferring knowledge to students Drawing from the deep wisdom found in the classic teachings and stories of Kabbalah and Chassidut The Art of Education focuses the educator on creating a lasting impression on students by opening their spirits to their own higher realms of consciousness and by helping them integrate newly found energy will and insights into everyday life The Art of Education surveys the seven skills of the accomplished educator communication self criticism recognition flexibility attention to details prioritization and the correct use of reward and punishment Together these seven skills form a Kabbalistic structural model that when properly understood functions like a neurological key unlocking the inner educator in each of us Jewish Education Ari Y Kelman, 2024-05-17 Jewish education has been dominated by two concerns What ought to be taught And what is the best way to teach it This book upends the conventional approaches by asking a different question How do people learn to engage in Jewish life

Pearls of Jewish Wisdom on Living with Kindness Shmuly Yanklowitz,2023-06-29 In this book we will share forty lessons each with its own unique theme The common thread to the series is living with deeper kindness How can the Jewish tradition inspire us to live with deeper love and compassion How can Jewish pearls of wisdom inform how we care for one another The book contains five sections Kindness Toward Specific Individuals Kindness Toward All Individuals Kindness Through Restraint Care for Our Environment and Self Improvement as a Catalyst for Kindness to Others The first two sections address proactive kindness towards our fellow humans the third addresses kindness by avoiding hurting others the fourth kindness towards all of God's creations including animals and nature as kindness cannot be only people directed the fifth serves as a starting point and catalyst for all of the above for without first being kind to ourselves and improving our general character we cannot be truly kind towards others The argument is not only that God wants us to live with kindness and that Torah necessitates it but that kindness has the greatest chance of bringing happiness and meaning to our lives God Was Right Mark

Meditation for the Nations Yitshak Ginzburg,2007 Ours is the first generation in modern times to understand the truly universal human condition and to seek to bring all peoples of the earth together in peace and harmony We are the first generation to truly understand that we are faced with the challenge of either inhabiting our planet harmoniously or not inhabiting it at all Filling our future is the fundamentalism that threatens to pit one religion against another But our different relationships and understandings of G-d should not be the reason for conflict but the source of goodwill in building our relationships with one another and our ability to understand others The covenant with the Jewish people was not the first made between the Almighty and mankind Before the revelation at Mt Sinai G-d commanded Adam and then made a covenant with Noah giving them the guidelines for the universal religion of mankind The most well known part of this covenant is the seven universal commandments or the Seven Noahide Laws For this reason Judaism and Jews do not proselytize but rather seek to guide the nations of the world in developing their own relationship with the Almighty and implementing these potentially unifying laws of basic human nature This book offers you a glimpse into the tremendous mystical power and meaning of G-d's covenant with humanity and the Seven Noahide Laws as explained in Kabbalah It focuses on their spiritual and inner dimensions and inspires a deeper look at our best hope for achieving world peace and a better future for all beings
