second volume of a two volume set on Chinese narratology this title investigates the quintessential characteristics of the Chinese narrative style with a focus on image and perspective The first chapter introduces two opposing concepts of perspective focalization and blind spot to connect perspective with traditional aesthetics highlighting the mutual relation of the nonexistent and the existent The author believes that both the narrator and perspective are central to the narrative forms and strategies adopted by Chinese writers and that study of the narrator and perspective is integral to understanding the cultural aesthetic and philosophical connotations of the narrative text and the spiritual world of the author Drawing on perceptual phenomenology the chapter on image broadens the extant knowledge of image and points out that image narration is unique to Chinese narratology and central to Chinese aesthetics The final chapter illustrating the achievements of influential critics of classical Chinese novels proving that these critics have contributed to the canonization of the genuine masterpieces of Chinese narrative literature The book is a must read for scholars and students interested in narrative theory Chinese culture and literature and dialogue between Chinese and Western narratological studies Teaching Writing in

Chinese Speaking Areas Mark Shiu-Kee Shum, 2005-07-27 One of the most civilized nations in history China has a long standing writing tradition and many Chinese texts have become world treasures However the way the Chinese teach writing in various countries in contemporary times is little known to the outside world especially in Western countries Undoubtedly the Chinese have had an established traditional method of writing instruction However recent social and political developments have created the perception amongst both practitioners and researchers of a need for change Whilst certain socio political changes both in Mainland China and in the territories acted as agents for reform of the teaching of composition the shape these reforms are taking has been due to many different influences coming both from inside the countries themselves and from foreign sources Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Singapore have each developed their own approach to the teaching of composition Teaching Writing in Chinese Speaking Areas aims to provide an accurate picture of the diverse composition teaching contexts and approaches in these four regions and countries This is the first book that systematically introduces recent developments in teaching composition in Chinese speaking areas It outlines current theories and paradigms originating both in the West and in China and Chinese speaking territories and the way in which these have been adapted to suit the various cultural contexts and learning environments The overview is of relevance not only to the East but throughout the world      Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music Yuan

Jingfang,2023-03-08 Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music offers a detailed survey of Chinese traditional music in five chapters each dealing with a different genre The five genres are folk songs dance music narrative singing music from Chinese opera and instrumental music The book begins with an introduction providing an overview of Chinese traditional music history its connotations and main musical features an indispensable context for readers unfamiliar with the subject Within the main text the authors discuss not only the local music genres focusing on instruments music analysis and tonal theories but also the historical evolution performance and social contexts associated with the music A glossary of Chinese musical terms is listed in the appendix      A HISTORY OF ANCIENT CHINESE MUSIC AND DANCE Wang

Ningning,2019-11-04 A History of Ancient Chinese Music and Dance describes the history of music and dance in ancient China in the past five thousand years in the forms of poems music and dance It includes court music and dance music and dance in drama and folk music and dance It covers historical and professional knowledge such as music dance poetry and drama The book consists of eleven chapters from ancient times to the Ming Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty In each chapter there are historical background music and dance works people events and related poetry and images The Yellow Emperor created tonality for wind instruments Emperor Yao and Emperor Shun invented musical instruments qin and se Duke of Zhou made system of rites and music Apart from these music dance and acrobatics in the Qin Dynasty and the Han Dynasty grand compositions in the Tang Dynasty and the Song Dynasty and music and dance in drama in the Ming Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty can all lead us to the long developing process of ancient music and dance The book was the Project of 2003 National Tenth Five Year Plan for Art Science in China It was co funded by the National Publishing Fund and China Classics International of the General Administration of Press and Publication      The Poetics of Repetition in English and Chinese

Lyric Poetry Cecile Chu-chin Sun,2011-01-15 In this pioneering book Cecile Chu chin Sun establishes a sound and effective comparative methodology by using a multifaceted understanding of the concept of repetition not merely a recurrence of words and images as a key perspective from which to compare the poetry and poetics from these two traditions
