OLIVEROS, Singing to the Jinas Mary Whitney Kelting,2001 While Western Jain scholarship has focused on those texts and practices favoring male participation the Jain community itself relies heavily on lay women s participation for religious education the performance of key rituals and the locus of religious knowledge In this fieldwork based study Whitney

Kelting attempts to reconcile these women's understanding of Jainism with the religion as presented in the existing scholarship. Jain women she shows both accept and rewrite the idealized roles received from religious texts, practices and social expectation according to which female religiosity is a symbol of Jain perfection. This volume describes these women's interpretations of their religion not as folklore or popular religion but as a theology that recreates Jainism in a form which honors their own participation.
