possibilities of putting musicals on the silver screen The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations traces how the genre of the stage to screen musical has evolved starting with screen adaptations of operettas such as The Desert Song and Rio Rita and looks at how the Hollywood studios in the 1930s exploited the publication of sheet music as part of their income Numerous chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth including not only favorites such as Annie and Kiss Me Kate but also some of the lesser known titles like Li l Abner and Roberta and problematic adaptations such as Carousel and Paint Your Wagon Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies

100 Film Musicals Douglas Pye,Jim Hillier,2019-07-25 From the coming of sound to the 1960s the musical was central to Hollywood production Exhibiting often in spectacular fashion the remarkable resources of the Hollywood studios musicals came to epitomise the very idea of light entertainment Films like Top Hat and 42nd Street Meet Me in St Louis and On the Town Singin in the Rain and Oklahoma West Side Story and The Sound of Music were hugely popular yet were commonly regarded by cultural commentators as trivial and escapist It was the 1970s before serious study of the Hollywood musical began to change critical attitudes and foster an interest in musical films produced in other cultures Hollywood musicals have become less common but the genre persists and both academic interest in and fond nostalgia for the musical shows no signs of abating 100 Film

Musicals provides a stimulating overview of the genre's development its major themes and the critical debates it has provoked While centred on the dominant Hollywood tradition 100 Film Musicals includes films from countries that often tried to emulate the Hollywood style like Britain and Germany as well as from very different cultures like India Egypt and Japan Jim Hillier and Douglas Pye also discuss post 1960s films from many different sources which adapt and reflect on the conventions of the genre including recent examples such as Moulin Rouge and High School Musical demonstrating that the genre is still very much alive
