

Learn to love solitude, to be more alone with yourselves.

The tragedy of today's young people is that they try to unite on the basis of carrying out noisy and aggressive actions so as not to feel lonely, and this is a sad thing.

The individual must learn from childhood to be on his own, for this doesn't mean to be lonely: it means to not get bored with oneself, because a person who finds himself bored when he is alone, it seems to me, is a person in danger.

Works of Love Søren Kierkegaard, 2013-04-21 The various kinds and conditions of love are a common theme for Kierkegaard beginning with his early Either Or through The Diary of the Seducer and Judge William s eulogy on married love to his last work on the changelessness of God s love Works of Love the midpoint in the series is also the monumental high point because of its penetrating illuminating analysis of the forms and sources of love Love as feeling and mood is distinguished from works of love love of the lovable from love of the unlovely preferential love from love as the royal law love as mutual egotism from triangular love and erotic love from self giving love This work is marked by Kierkegaard's Socratic awareness of the reader both as the center of awakened understanding and as the initiator of action. Written to be read aloud, the book conveys a keenness of thought and an insightful poetic imagination that make such an attentive approach richly rewarding. Works of Love not only serves as an excellent place to begin exploring the writings of Kierkegaard but also rewards many rereadings.

Daughters of the Bear Maite Díez, Jennifer Mathews, 2004

Daughters of the Bear is an anthology of non-fiction by 53 Korean women such as a shopkeeper in Itaewon, a doctor in Apkujong, a musician in Myong Dong, a housewife in Chamshil, and a student at Ewha Womans University. Shiver with a merchant as she recollects escaping with her sisters and mother across the 38th Parallel in a rowboat under Russian gunfire; share with a young professional her secret wedding to a coworker and walk along the paths between green carpeted barley fields toward a woman's childhood home. Through their stories, Korean women of different generations explore family, sacrifice, memories, relationships, sexuality, society's expectations and constraints, education, and the search for fulfillment and identity. The book includes a foreword by Chang Pilwha and translations by Young Oak Wells, Professor Kenneth Wells, and Brother Anthony of Taiz. Coronaspection Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2020-08-05

Coronaspection is a groundbreaking series of forty video interviews concerning COVID-19 and its spiritual challenges featuring major faith leaders worldwide. Coronaspection was created as a means of providing hope and inspiration to the faithful of all religions as humanity struggled and as it continues to struggle with the challenges posed by COVID-19. This volume seeks to answer questions that have emerged following the release of the video interviews: How is religion functioning during COVID-19? Do different religions respond to the crisis differently? These and similar questions require a synthetic view of the project which in turn is based on an analysis of its themes and messages.

Thinking Through Loneliness Diane Enns, 2022-04-21

This is the peculiar paradox of loneliness: I am unseen yet I feel exposed as though my most internal suffering were on public display as though I am disclosing to the world the vulnerability it does not want to see. By reflecting on the experience of loneliness through the author's own life, the narratives of others, and analyses from Arendt to Berardi, Thinking Through Loneliness explores the ambiguities of being alone. It seeks to defy the reductionist tendencies of the current loneliness experts, looking beyond loneliness as a collective health crisis to consider what it tells us about our great need for one another and what happens when we fail to meet this need. Our social needs vary; however, to investigate loneliness is to inquire into the contradictions of the human condition: we are alone and together, separate and attached, which gives rise to the need for individuality on the one hand and for intimacy on the other. To be lonely is to suffer from an unfulfilled desire to be close to others. But we can also suffer from an unfulfilled desire to be separate from others. Diane Enns explores how loneliness might be an inescapable dimension of human existence but also the collective symptom of social failure. The lonely are not to blame for their distress; they are witnesses to the failure of our contemporary social world dramatically transformed in recent decades by digital technology and changes in how we work.

love socialize and live together in households neighbourhoods and cities Enns argues it is crucial to recognise the structural conditions economic political institutional technological that give rise to the isolation that produces loneliness Only then can we work to undermine these conditions preserving all that is best about human social life Amatoria Jason
