Marbot Eine Biographie:

Marbot Wolfgang Hildesheimer, 1983

Biographie Als Religiöser und Kultureller Text Anthony J.

Cascardi, Dietrich Ritschl, Roxane Witke, 2002

The Distinction of Fiction Dorrit Cohn, 2000-12 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies from the Modern Language Association Winner of the Modern Language Association s Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies The border between fact and fiction has been trespassed so often it seems to be a highway Works of history that include fictional techniques are usually held in contempt but works of fiction that include history are among the greatest of classics Fiction claims to be able to convey its own unique kinds of truth But unless a reader knows in advance whether a narrative is fictional or not judgment can be frustrated and confused In The Distinction of Fiction Dorrit Cohn argues that fiction does present specific clues to its fictionality and its own justifications Indeed except in cases of deliberate deception fiction achieves its purposes best by exercising generic conventions that inform the reader that it is fiction Cohn tests her conclusions against major narrative works including Proust s A la Recherche du temps perdu Mann s Death in Venice Tolstoy s War and Peace and Freud s case studies She contests widespread poststructuralist views that all narratives are fictional On the contrary she separates fiction and nonfiction as necessarily distinct even when bound together An expansion of Cohn s Christian Gauss lectures at Princeton and the product of many years of labor and thought The Distinction of Fiction builds on narratological and phenomenological theories to show that boundaries between fiction and history can be firmly and systematically explored

The Text and Its Context Nigel Harris, Joanne Sayner, 2008 This Festschrift for Ronald Speirs Professor of German at the University of Birmingham contains twenty four original essays by scholars from Great Britain Germany Austria and Norway Between them they encompass the entire modern period from the later eighteenth century onwards and focus on a wide range of German speaking environments Several essays throw new light on authors to whom Professor Speirs himself has devoted particular attention such as Brecht Thomas Mann Nietzsche and Fontane whilst others discuss writers such as Lenz Bchner Bhlau C F Meyer Keyserling Jahn and Huch Above all however the contributions address the complexities of writing in ideologically diverse contexts including the Third Reich and the former German Democratic Republic This interplay between text and context is the cornerstone which links all the essays as it has consistently informed Ronald Speirs s own work which combines a scrupulous attention to textual detail with an acute awareness of the socio political milieu and philosophical influences that shape creative literature Learning from Lying Julia Luisa Abramson, 2005 Learning from Lying narrates a new literary history as seen through the lens of mystification Beginning with an examination of mystification s elaboration during the century of Enlightenment the book accounts for mystification s distinctiveness relative to other deceptive forms particularly forgery and provides a timely intervention in current debates about the study of fakes Readings of works by Denis Diderot Prosper Mérimée and Wolfgang Hildesheimer follow out the cosmopolitan roots of the genre in the Republic of Letters and show how it theorizes literature through practical experiment For when textual imitation is revealed it unveils the necessary collusion between reader and writer that allows literature to exist as such

Fakes and Forgeries Peter Knight, Jonathan Long, 2004 The possibility that works of art and literature might be forged and that identity might be faked has haunted the cultural imagination for centuries That spectre seems to have returned with a vengeance recently with a series of celebrated hoaxes and scandals ranging from the Alan Sokal hoax article in Social Text to Benjamin Wilkomirski's fake Holocaust memoir But as well as creating anxiety the possibility of faking it has now been turned into entertainment Traditionally these activities have been dismissed as dangerous and immoral but more recently some scholars have begun to speculate for example that all forms of national identity rely on forged myths of origin Recent cultural theory has likewise called into question traditional notions of authenticity and originality in both personal identity and in works of art Despite critical pronouncements of the death of the author and the substitution of the simulacrum for the original however making a distinction between the genuine and the fake continues to play a major role in our everyday understanding and evaluation of culture law and politics Consider for example the fiasco surrounding the forged Hitler diaries law suits against auction houses for failing to detect forgeries in the art market or the problem of plagiarism at universities It still seems to matter that we can spot the difference especially in the historical moment when we are capable of making copies that are indistinguishable perhaps even better than the original This collection of essays considers the moral aesthetic and political questions that are raised by the long history and current prevalence of fakes and forgeries The international team of contributors consider the issues thrown up by a wide range of examples drawn from fields ranging from literature to art history These case studies include little known subjects such as Eddie Burrup the Australian aboriginal artist who turned out to be an 81 year old white woman as well as new interpretations of familiar cases such as faked Holocaust memoirs The strength of the collection is that it brings together not only a wide range of cultural examples of fakes and forgeries from different historical periods but also offers a wide variety of theoretical takes that will form a useful introduction and casebook on this growing field of inquiry

Textual Subjectivity A. C. Spearing, 2005-10-27 Publisher Description Drawn from Life Jonathan Murray, 2018-11-14 Explores intrinsic connections between early modern intelligencers and metadrama in the plays of Shakespeare s contemporaries David Lodge and the Art-and-Reality Novel Daniel Ammann, 2020-03-31 Two distinctive views emerge concerning the presumed battle between Lodge s creative and critical work One holds that Lodge s fiction is antimodernist and therefore lags behind his criticism which displays a theoretical interest in the modernist and though to a lesser extent in the postmodernist text According to the opposite view time and again there have been strong elements of modernism and postmodernism in Lodge s novels In order to bring together the two lines of Lodge s work this study shall focus on some aspects in his fiction that are also discussed in his criticism Given this interdependence his declared interest in what he calls the art and reality novel can be regarded as a major starting point The emphasis falls on various forms of interplay in the fields of literature criticism and reality Accordingly it should be possible to apply Lodge the theorist to Lodge the novelist and thus bridge or at least explain the alleged division in his work Writing History in Film William Guynn, 2013-08-21 Historical film has been an important genre since the earliest silent films The French Revolution the American Civil War the conquest of the New World World War II all have been repeatedly represented in film But how do we distinguish between fictionalized spectacle and authentic historical representation Writing History in Film sets out the narratological semiological rhetorical and philosophical bases for understanding how film can function as a form of historical interpretation and representation With case studies and an interdisciplinary approach William Guynn examines the key issues facing film students and scholars historians and anyone interested in how we see our historical past Born Under Auschwitz Mary Cosgrove, 2014 Uncovers the literary traditions of melancholy that inform major works of postwar and contemporary German literature dealing with the Holocaust and the Nazi period In German Studies the literary phenomenon of melancholy which has a longstanding and diverse history in European letters has typically been associated with the Early Modern and Baroque periods Romanticism and the crisis of modernity This association alongside the dominant psychoanalytical view of melancholy in German memory discourses since the 1960s has led to its neglect as an important literary mode in postwar German literature a situation the present book seeks to redress by identifying and analyzing epochal postwar works that use melancholy traditions to comment on German history in the aftermath of the Holocaust It focuses on five writers G nter Grass Wolfgang Hildesheimer Peter Weiss W G Sebald and Iris Hanika who reflect on the legacy of Auschwitz as intellectuals trying to negotiate a relationship to the past based on the stigma of belonging to a perpetrator collective Grass Sebald Hanika or broadly speaking to the victim collective Weiss Hildesheimer in order to develop a melancholy ethics of memory for the Holocaust and the Nazi past It will appeal to scholars and students of German Studies Comparative Literature Cultural Studies Cultural Memory and Holocaust Studies Mary Cosgrove is Reader in German at the University of Edinburgh

An Impossible Friendship Sonja Mejcher-Atassi, 2024-05-28 In Jerusalem as World War II was coming to an end an extraordinary circle of friends began to meet at the bar of the King David Hotel This group of aspiring artists writers and intellectuals among them Wolfgang Hildesheimer Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Sally Kassab Walid Khalidi and Rasha Salam some of whom would go on to become acclaimed authors scholars and critics came together across religious lines in a fleeting moment of possibility within a troubled history What brought these Muslim Jewish and Christian friends together and what became of them in the aftermath of 1948 the year of the creation of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Nakba Sonja Mejcher Atassi tells the story of this unlikely friendship and in so doing offers an intimate cultural and social history of Palestine in the critical postwar period She vividly reconstructs the vanished social world of these protagonists tracing the connections between the specificity of individual lives and the larger contexts in which they are embedded In exploring this ecumenical friendship and its artistic literary and intellectual legacies Mejcher Atassi demonstrates how social biography can provide a picture of the past that is at once more inclusive and more personal This group portrait she argues allows us to glimpse alternative possibilities that exist within and alongside the fraught history of Israel Palestine Bringing a remarkable era to life through archival research and nuanced interdisciplinary scholarship An Impossible Friendship unearths prospects for historical reconciliation solidarity and justice World Literature Today, 1982

The Many Faces of Germany John A. McCarthy, Walter Grûnzweig, Thomas Koebner, 2004-04-01 With the fall of the Berlin Wall and the shifting of American foreign policy away from old Europe long established patterns of interaction between Germany and the U S have come under review Although seemingly disconnected from the cultural and intellectual world political developments were not without their influence on the humanities and their curricula during the past century In retrospect we can speak of the many different roles Germany has played in American eyes The Many Faces of Germany seeks to acknowledge the importance of those incarnations for the study of German culture and history on both sides of the Atlantic One of the major questions raised by the contributors is whether the transformations in the transatlantic dynamics and in the importance of Germany for the U S have had a major influence on the study of things German in the U S internally The volume gathers together leading voices of the older and younger generations of social historians literary scholars film critics and cultural historians
