Congress, 1980 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789-1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824-1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833-1873 The Australian Army Uniform and the Government Clothing Factory Anneke van Mosseveld, 2018-02-13 This book reveals the business history of the Australian Government Clothing Factory as it introduced innovative changes in the production and design of the Australian Army uniform during the twentieth century While adopting a Schumpeterian interpretation of the concept of innovation Anneke van Mosseveld traces the driving forces behind innovation and delivers a comprehensive explanation of the resulting changes in the combat uniform Using an array of archival sources this book displays details of extensive collaborations between the factory the Army and scientists in the development of camouflage patterns and military textiles It uncovers a system of intellectual property management to protect the designs of the uniform and delivers new insights into the wider economic influences and industry linkages of the Government owned factory Field Gun Jack Versus the Boers Tony

Bridgland,1997-09-05 War broke out in 1899 between the British and South African settlers of Dutch descent the Boers or Afrikaners as they are usually called today Despite previous clashes the British seriously underestimated their opponents Although dressed in battered civilian clothes and made up entirely of volunteers Boer troops were all mounted on horses and had very up to date German rifles An even more unpleasant surprise than the mounted riflemen were the Boer artillery units They were the only Boer troops to wear uniforms were organized on a full time basis and were equipped with excellent German field pieces The British artillery soon found itself out gunned and out ranged Some British officers however were capable of adapting to the new conditions in South Africa Royal Naval vessels anchored off the Cape had powerful long range cannons It was decided to try bringing these guns ashore and mounting them on improvised carriages for field use Naval infantry brigades had served in some previous campaigns and proved capable of accompanying the army as gun crews their straw hats and naval leggings identifiable in many wartime photographs Although they were depicted in many wartime drawings and photographs no serious study of the naval artillery has ever been done Tony Bridgland has spent many years researching the topic and has produced a study of the technical problems involved in this unique operation as well as a colourful narrative of naval personnel pressed into hazardous service far from the sea Professional Journal of the
