Fiction Ruined My Family Jeanne Darst, 2011-09-29 Beautifully paced heartbreaking and hilarious USA Today Augusten Burroughs meets Mary Karr a deeply funny and wickedly entertaining family memoir The youngest of four daughters in an old celebrated St Louis family of prominent journalists and politicians on one side debutantes and equestrians on the other Jeanne Darst grew up hearing stories of past grandeur And the message she internalized as a young girl was clear While things might be a bit tight for us right now it s only temporary Soon her father would sell the Great American Novel and reclaim the family s former glory The Darsts move from St Louis to New York and Jeanne s father writes one novel then another which don t find publishers This combined with her mother s burgeoning alcoholism lead to financial disaster and divorce And as Jeanne becomes an adult she is horrified to discover that she is not only a drinker like her mother but a writer like her father At first and for years she embraces both activities and until she can stop putting drinking and writing ahead of everything else it s a questionable choice Ultimately Darst sets out to discover whether a person can have the writing without the ruin whether it s possible to be both sober and creative ambitious and happy a professional author and a parent Filled with brilliantly flawed idiosyncratic characters and punctuated by Darst s irreverent eye for absurdity Fiction Ruined My Family is a lovingly told wickedly funny portrait of an unconventional life

Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia Abidin Kusno,2016-10-06 Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia explores how visual representations shaped and were shaped by how the ethnic Chinese confronted the period of economic dislocation and radical social change during Dutch colonialism and the nationalist struggles in the decolonized Indonesia including the post 1965 and 1998 social environments How did the ethnic Chinese communities re present themselves to both their domestic and outside world under the changing regimes of representation How did they visualize symbolically their place in Indonesian society How did the visual shape the ambiguities of the Chinese the perception of the economic identity and the forgetting of their involvement in politics cultures and histories of the nation More broadly how did the visual address the interconnectedness of domestic life the urban cultural milieu and ideologies of the state and the ruling class The book is a response to two paradoxical socio political phenomena whose convergence is shaping the experience and conceptualization of ethnic Chinese in Indonesia On the one hand the economic technological and cultural forces of colonialism and globalization have created conditions for the formation of ethnic Chinese capital ists while on the other the state generated identity and identification constituted the discourses of othering the ethnic Chinese as foreign minority

Katihar To Kennedy : The Road Less Travelled Sanjay Kumar,2019-04-01 Katihar to Kennedy is an extraordinary journey of a man from dusty alleys of Katihar to the gleaming pathways of Kennedy It is an autobiographical account of a small town boy who starts his journey from a tiny town of Bihar in one of India s economically backward districts and is able to reach the Harvard Kennedy School in Cambridge Massachusetts The journey also depicts the inner conflicts of a man and his continuous efforts to overcome all the difficulties in his path while fighting with his inner shortcomings The book is about the lessons he learned from failures as well as from moments of triumph These are learned while engaging intimately with harsh socio economic realities and contrasts he experienced while moving between cities institutions and job roles It is also a book of honest confrontation of a person s own ego and pride

Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen,2002-02-22 Essays on photography and the medium s history and evolving identity In Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen explores a wide range of photographic subjects from the timing of the medium s invention to the various implications of cyberculture Along the way he reflects on contemporary art photography the role of the vernacular in photography s history and the Australianness of Australian photography The essays all focus on a consideration of specific photographs from a humble combination of baby photos and bronzed booties to a masterwork by Alfred Stieglitz Although Batchen views each photograph within the context of broader social and political forces he also engages its own distinctive formal attributes In short he sees photography as something that is simultaneously material and cultural In an effort to evoke the lived experience of history he frequently relies on sheer description as the mode of analysis insisting that we look right at rather than beyond the photograph being discussed A constant theme throughout the book is the question of photography s past present and future identity

Sea, Mothers, Swallow, Tongues Kim de l'Horizon,2025-08-26 Winner of the German Book Prize the Swiss Book Prize and the J rgen Ponto Foundation Literature Prize A prize winning boundary breaking debut exploring family class history and the true idea of the self A glorious tender unsparing exploration of language family history class self and the human Sea Mothers Swallow Tongues begins with the loss of memory As their grandmother falls into dementia the narrator begins to ask questions to fill in the silences and the gaps Childhood memories resurface revealing a path into the past The maternal line leads toward nature witchcraft freedom and power Could this be where the narrator belongs A quest toward understanding a story of liberation from generational trauma gender constructs class identity the limits of language this narrative invents its own forms words and bodies to conjure and cast out the very idea of the unspeakable It searches for other kinds of knowledge and traditions other ways of becoming and reaches for wisdom beyond the human In Sea Mothers Swallow Tongues Kim de l Horizon reimagines family narratives abandoning the linear in favor of a fluid incantatory expansive search into who we are
