Faulkner in the twenty first century The Sound of Culture Louis Chude-Sokei,2015-12-29 The Sound of Culture explores the histories of race and technology in a world made by slavery colonialism and industrialization Beginning in the late nineteenth century and moving through to the twenty first the book argues for the dependent nature of those histories Looking at American British and Caribbean literature it distills a diverse range of subject matter minstrelsy Victorian science fiction cybertheory and artificial intelligence All of these facets according to Louis Chude Sokei are part of a history in which music has been central to the equation that links blacks and machines As Chude Sokei shows science fiction itself has roots in racial anxieties and he traces those anxieties across two centuries and a range of writers and thinkers from Samuel Butler Herman Melville and Edgar Rice Burroughs to Sigmund Freud William Gibson and Donna Haraway to Norbert Weiner Sylvia Wynter and Samuel R Delany

Internationalism in Children's Series K. Sands-O'Connor,M. Frank,2014-04-08 Internationalism in Children s Series brings together international children s literature scholars who interpret internationalism through various cultural historical and theoretical lenses From imperialism to transnationalism from Tom Swift to Harry Potter this book addresses the unique ability of series to introduce children to the world Creolization Charles Stewart,2016-07 Renowned scholars give the term creolization historical and theoretical specificity by examining the very different domains and circumstances in which the process takes place Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken,2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot s Savage slot The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships The Plantation in the Postslavery Imagination Elizabeth Christine Russ,2009-11-05 In a provocative new approach toward understanding transnational literary cultures this study examines the specter of the plantation that physical place most vividly associated with slavery in the Americas For Elizabeth Russ the plantation is not merely a literal location but also a vexing rhetorical ideological and psychological trope through which intersecting histories of the New World are told Through a series of precise in depth readings Russ analyzes the discourse of the plantation through a number of suggestive pairings male and female perspectives U S and Spanish American traditions and continental alongside island societies To chart comparative elements in the development of the postslavery imagination in the Northern and Southern hemispheres Russ distinguishes between a modern and a postmodern imaginary The former privileges a familiar plot of modernity the traumatic transition from a local largely agrarian order to an increasingly anonymous industrialized society The latter abandoning nostalgia toward the past suggests a new history using the strategies of performance such as witnessing reticency and traversal Authors examined include The Twelve Southerners Fernando Ortiz Teresa de la Parra Eudora Welty Antonio Benitez Rojo Gayl Jones Toni Morrison and Mayra Santos Febres among others Applying sharp analyses across a broad range of texts Russ reveals how the language used to imagine communities influenced by the plantation has been gendered racialized and eroticized in ways that oppose the domination of an ever shifting North while often reproducing the fundamental power divide Her work moves beyond the North South dichotomy that has often stymied scholarly work in Latin American studies and importantly provides a model for future hemispheric approaches

Naturalizing Africa Cajetan Iheka,2018 This book analyzes how African literary texts have engaged with pressing ecological problems in Africa It is a multi disciplinary text for both researchers and scholars of African Studies the environment and postcolonial literature Migrant Revolutions Valerie Kaussen,2008-01-01 Migrant Revolution offers an overview of twentieth century Haitian literature placing its rich tradition in the context of transnational anti colonial politics Kaussen argues that the anti colonial politics of Haitian modernist literature is based on the philosophies of human rights that drove the Haitian Revolution and further that Haitian literary modernity has continually challenged the world colonial order including the contemporary era of globalization Science Fiction, New Space Opera, and Neoliberal Globalism

Jerome Winter,2016-11-15 One of the few points critics and readers can agree upon when discussing the fiction popularly known as New Space Opera a recent subgenre movement of science fiction is its canny engagement with contemporary cultural politics in the age of globalisation This book avers that the complex political allegories of New Space Opera respond to the recent cultural phenomenon known as neoliberalism which entails the championing of the deregulation and privatisation of social services and programmes in the service of global free market expansion Providing close readings of the evolving New Space Opera canon and cultural histories and theoretical contexts of neoliberalism as a regnant ideology of our times this book conceptualises a means to appreciate this thriving movement of popular literature C. L. R. James and Creolization Nicole King,2011-01-01 C L R James 1901 1989 one of the most important intellectuals of the twentieth century expressed his postcolonial and socialist philosophies in fiction speeches essays and book length scholarly discourses However the majority of academic attention given to James keeps the diverse mediums of James's writing separate focuses on his work as a political theorist and subordinates his role as a fiction writer This book however seeks to change such an approach to studying James Defining creolization as a process by which European African Amerindian Asian and American cultures are amalgamated to form new hybrid identities and cultures Nicole King uses this process as a means to understanding James's work and life She argues that throughout his career whether writing a short story or a political history James articulated his attempt to produce revolutionary radical discourses with a consistent methodology James a Trinidad born scholar who migrated to England and then to the United States and who described himself both as a black radical and a Victorian intellectual serves as a definitive model of creolization King argues that James's writings also fit the model of creolization for each is influenced by diverse types of discourses James rarely wrote from within the confines of a single discipline instead choosing to make the layers of history literature philosophy and political theory coalesce in order to make his point As his West Indian and Western European influences converge in his work and life he creates texts that are difficult to confine to a specific category or discipline No matter which writerly medium he uses James was preoccupied with how to represent the individual personality and at the same time represent the community The C L R James that emerges from King's study is a man made more compelling and more human because of his complicated multilayered and sometimes contradictory allegiances

Romantic Revisions in Novels from the Americas Lauren Rule Maxwell, 2013-03-15 Why are twentieth century novelists from former British colonies in the Americas preoccupied with British Romantic poetry In Romantic Revisions Lauren Rule Maxwell examines five novels Kincaid's Lucy Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale McCarthy's Blood Meridian Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby and Harris's Palace of the Peacock that contain crucial scenes engaging British Romantic poetry Each work adapts figures from British Romantic poetry and translates them into an American context Kincaid relies on the repeated image of the daffodil Atwood displaces Lucy McCarthy upends the American arcadia Fitzgerald heaps Keatsian images of excess and Harris transforms the albatross In her close readings Maxwell suggests that the novels reframe Romantic poetry to allegorically confront empire revealing how subjectivity is shaped by considerations of place and power Returning to British Romantic poetry allows the novels to extend the Romantic poetics of landscape that traditionally considered the British subject's relation to place By recasting Romantic poetics in the Americas these novels show how negotiations of identity and power are defined by the legacies of British imperialism illustrating that these nations their peoples and their works of art are truly postcolonial While many postcolonial scholars and critics have dismissed the idea that Romantic poetry can be used to critique colonialism Maxwell suggests that on the contrary it has provided contemporary writers across the Americas with a means of charting the literary and cultural legacies of British imperialism in the New World The poems of the British Romantics offer postcolonial writers particularly rich material Maxwell argues because they characterize British influence at the height of the British empire In explaining how the novels adapt figures from British
