Quel Beau Dimanche:

Quel Beau Dimanche Jorge SEMPRUN, 1980 Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation Harriet Hulme, 2018-11-19 Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation engages with translation in both theory and practice as part of an interrogation of ethical as well as political thought in the work of three bilingual European authors Bernardo Atxaga Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun In approaching the work of these authors the book draws upon the approaches to translation offered by Benjamin Derrida Ricur and Deleuze to highlight a broad set of ethical questions focused upon the limitations of the monolingual and the democratic possibilities of linguistic plurality upon our innate desire to translate difference into similarity and upon the ways in which translation responds to the challenges of individual and collective remembrance Each chapter explores these interlingual but also intercultural interrelational and interdisciplinary issues mapping a journey of translation that begins in the impact of translation upon the work of each author continues into moments of linguistic translation untranslatability and mistranslation within their texts and ultimately becomes an exploration of social political and affective untranslatability In these journeys the creative and critical potential of translation emerges as a potent often violent but always illuminating vision of the possibilities of differentiation and connection generation and memory in temporal linguistic cultural and political terms Jorge Semprun Ursula Tidd, 2017-12-02 The Spanish Communist exile and Francophone Holocaust writer Jorge Semprun 1923 is a major contributor to contemporary debates on the politics and ethics of remembering the Franco era Communism and the Holocaust in French Spanish and broader European contexts His sophisticated literary testimonies have become landmark texts not least for their commitment to represent the lived experience of history In this first detailed study in English of Jorge Semprun's writing Ursula Tidd shows how Semprun explores the parameters of self writing as an address to the other in a richly intertextual corpus which weaves together history fiction and auto bio thanatography and gives voice to the traumatic experiences of geographical and political exile and concentration camp internment Ursula Tidd is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Manchester UK Written in Red Gina Herrmann, 2010 The first major study of the profound impact of international communist politics and culture on Spanish letters On the Defensive Sharon Marquart, 2015-01-01 On the Defensive considers how our ethical responses to the Nazi camps have unintentionally repressed and denied the experiences of their victims Through detailed readings of survivor narratives particularly the works of political deportees Jorge Semprun and Charlotte Delbo Sharon Marquart examines how well intentioned people including victims their family members and readers of witness literature respond to such testimony in ways that are understood as ethical by their communities but serve instead to ignore victims experiences As Marquart shows collective disasters such as the Holocaust expose the limitations of our ethical theories To cope with this instability we withdraw and defend ourselves through inattentive and formulaic responses that turn a blind eye to the plight of victims Challenging contemporary theorizations of community ethics testimony and trauma On the Defensive is a far reaching reflection on the ways in which communal understandings of our duties and responsibilities to others can facilitate the denial of an atrocity's horrors

Working Through Memory Ofelia Ferrán, 2007 Studies various constructions of memory in contemporary Spanish literature evoking different aspects of a past of repression from both the civil war and the Franco regime This book analyzes narrative texts published between the 1960s and 1990s that present memory and the recuperation of a traumatic past as their main theme
Writing and Life, Literature and History Liran Razinsky, 2016-01-01 In 1963 French Spanish writer Jorge Semprun published Le Grand Voyage The Long Voyage a fictional account of his deportation to Buchenwald Later Semprun became an Academy Award nominated screenwriter and served as Spain's minister of culture This volume of the Yale French Studies series constitutes an overall assessment of his work spanning his broad range of genres and traditions Including both new perspectives and pieces by authors who have written widely on Semprun this volume is a refreshing and dynamic look at one of the twentieth century's most interesting literary voices

Perspectives on the Holocaust R.L.

Braham,2013-04-17 The number of books and articles dealing with various aspects of World War II has increased at a phenomenal rate since the end of the hostilities Perhaps no other chapter in this bloodiest of all wars has received as much attention as the Holo caust The Nazis program for the Final Solution of the Jewish Question this ideologically conceived diabolical plan for the physicalliquidation of European Jewry has emerged as a subject of agonizing and intense interest to laypersons and scholars alike The centrality of the Holocaust in the study of the Third Reich and the Nazi phenomenon is almost universally recognized The source materials for many of the books published during the immediate postwar period were the notes and diaries kept by many camp and ghetto dwellers who were sustained during their unbelievable ordeal by the unusual drive to bear witness These were supplemented after the liberation by a large number of personal narratives collected from survivors all over Europe Understandably the books published shortly after the war ended were mainly martyrological and lachrymological reflecting the trauma of the Holocaust at the personal individual level These were soon followed by a considerable number of books dealing with the moral and religious questions revolving around the role of the lay and spiritual leaders of the doomed Jewish communities especially those involved in the Jewish Councils as well as God's responsibility toward the chosen people The Ghost in the Constitution Joan Ramon Resina,2017 A book that offers new directions in the study of memory in Spain written by one of the world's leading scholars of contemporary Spanish culture

A Critical Companion to Jorge Semprún O. Ferrán,G. Herrmann,2014-09-17 Presenting the first English language collection of essays on Jorge Semprún this volume explores the life and work of the Spanish Holocaust survivor author and political activist Essays explore his cultural production in all its manifestations including the role of testimony and fiction in representations of the Holocaust Traces of War Colin Davis,2018 Traces of War examines how the trauma of the Second World War influenced the work of the brilliant generation of writers and intellectuals who lived through it European Literary Immigration Into the French Language Tijana Miletić,2008 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption Le roman français au tournant du XXIe siècle Aline Mura-Brunel, Marc Dambre, 2004 Ce recueil est structuré en six parties Autofictions Histoire Génalogies Fiction s en question Espaces limites bougs et Limités Le texte des interventions est complété d'entretiens avec Philippe Sollers Richard Millet et Christian Oster Argumentation et prise de position Ruth Amossy, 2004 Témoignage et littérature d'après Auschwitz Fransiska Louwagie, 2020-06-15 Dans Témoignage et littérature d'après Auschwitz Fransiska Louwagie offre des études critiques provenant de deux centres de gravité de la littérature de la Shoah et des camps nazis les œuvres des témoins survivants et celles des générations suivantes Le livre explore les œuvres d'écrivains majeurs et parfois moins connus comme celles de Robert Antelme Andr Schwarz Bart Piotr Rawicz Jorge Semprun et Imre Kertész d'une part et celles de Georges Perec Raymond Federman Gérard Wajcman Henri Raczymow et Michel Kichka de l'autre En consacrant chaque auteur une étude critique approfondie Fransiska Louwagie fait pleinement droit à l'individualité des œuvres tout en développant des perspectives transversales sur les questions éthiques et esthétiques qui sous-tendent le témoignage et la littérature d'après Auschwitz In Témoignage et littérature d'après Auschwitz Fransiska Louwagie brings together two key areas of Holocaust literature offering a rich analysis of both testimony and second generation writing The book explores the works of major and sometimes lesser known writers such as Robert Antelme Andr Schwarz Bart Piotr Rawicz Jorge Semprun Imre Kertész Georges Perec Raymond Federman Gérard Wajcman Henri Raczymow and Michel Kichka By devoting an in depth critical study to each of these writers the book draws out the individual specificity of their works while also developing broader insights into the ethical and aesthetic questions that underlie acts of witnessing and writing after Auschwitz L'écrivain et le dictateur Luc Rassin, 2011-01-01 Australian Journal of French Studies, 1991 French in Grade Four Modern Language Association of America, 1956
