Social Semiotics as Praxis Paul J. Thibault,1990 In Social Semiotics as Praxis Paul J Thibault rescues semiotics from terminal formalism by recognizing that the object of a semiotic inquiry is necessarily the way in which human beings individually and collectively make sense of their lives Focusing on Vladimir Nabokov s Ada he develops a conception of social semiotics that is a form of both social action and political praxis Thibault s principal intellectual sources are among others Bakhtin Volosinov Derrida Foucault Gramsci Habermas and Halliday Thibault combines the work of Halliday in particular with is own theories of semiotics to explore the dynamics of quoting and reporting speech and to develop a critique of the categories of self and representation Thibault accounts for the meaningful relationships constructed among texts and elaborates on the two main themes of relational levels in texts and the dynamics of contextualization to give voice to a unifying discourse for talking about social meaning making Border Writing D. Woman and Chinese Modernity Rey Chow, We live in an era in which the critique of the West has become not only possible but mandatory Where does this critique leave those peoples whose entry into culture is precisely because of the history of Western imperialism already Westernized This is the primary question Rey Chow addresses in Woman and Chinese Modernity Book cover

Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Gregory Jusdanis, 1991 How does literature function in the formation of a nation state What are its pivotal contributions to national discourse and the production of ideological collective will And ultimately how is literature institutionalized and aestheticized Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Inventing National Literature addresses these questions and considers the role literature plays in the construction of a national cultural Gregory Jusdanis examines the emergence of art and literature in Western Europe in the eighteenth century and traces their introduction to Greece a stratified noncapitalist society that was hostile to Enlightenment and secularism This groundbreaking work explores the importation of national literatures into a largely non Western society and the inherent resistance they faced Arguing for the literary status of national culture at its inception Jusdanis brilliantly demonstrates that in literature the specific meanings in narratives and fiction form the process of nation building Culture history and literature he says merge in those narratives which in turn provide the imaginary mirror in which a nation reflects itself

The Subject of Philosophy Philippe Lacoue-Labarthe, 1993 The Subject of Philosophy presents a sustained examination of the relation between literature and philosophy with special emphasis on the problem of the subject and of representation Spanning the history of philosophy from Plato and Aristotle to Hegel Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger and addressing such major moments in the history of literature as Greek tragedy and German romanticism The book repeatedly raises the question whether philosophy's very attempts to distinguish itself from literature are not conditioned and exceeded by a fundamental inextricability of the two In these readings Lacoue Labarthe focuses on such issues as the nature of fiction and of figurative language the fate of the work the status of the author the question of madness and the definition of gender He broaches as well the analysis of mimesis the most important concept of his later work and one that already gives to his persistent aesthetic preoccupations an ethical and political resonance Philippe Lacoue Labarthe is the author of many books including Typography Mimesis Philosophy Politics Heidegger Art and Politics and with Jean Luc Nancy The Literary Absolute This book is intended for those in the fields of literary theory philosophy

Aesthetic Ideology Paul De Man, Andrzej Warminski, The core of Aesthetic Ideology is a rigorous inquiry into the relation of rhetoric epistemology and aesthetics and one that offers radical notions of materiality These texts were written or delivered as lectures during the last years of de Man's life
