Hesed and Tzedakah Walter Jacob, Walter Homolka, 2006-07-18 From a Jewish perspective divine action in this world revolves around two poles Hesed and Tzedakah There is one fundamental difference between them Hesed describes those actions of God that arise not from obligation but instead are spurred by pure love for humankind by grace and mercy Tzedakah by contrast touches on God s righteous interaction within his covenant as well as justice observed by man seeking harmony with God s will Each of the terms applies to both God and man Hesed and Tzedakah emanate from God and eventually should transform a person into a Hasid and a Tzaddik The authors of this volume parse the subtlety of different meanings behind this pair of terms from Bible to modernity
