Michael Houdmann, 2013-06 For centuries the life of Jesus Christ has divided human history into two eras the before and the after Who He is what He said what He did and what was done to Him these are without a doubt among the most dissected discussed and debated subjects ever Jesus fielded many questions Some were from sincere seekers of truth others were from devious manipulators of truth Which is the great commandment in the Law What must I do to inherit eternal life Why do your disciples break the tradition Who gave you this authority Often Jesus answered a question with a question Jesus skill went beyond rhetoric to challenge ideas inflame faith and spur action Jesus asked the rich young ruler Why do you call me good When questioned about taxes Jesus held up a coin and asked Whose likeness and inscription is this Before revealing His divine identity to the disciples He asked them Who do you say I am The answer to that question makes all the difference This book is full of questions about Jesus The answers are based on what Jesus said about Himself and what the Holy Spirit inspired the biblical writers to record Bible Answers for 1000

Copenhaver, 2014-09-02 Contrary to some common assumptions Jesus is not the ultimate Answer Man but more like the Great Questioner In the Gospels Jesus asks many more questions than he answers To be precise Jesus asks 307 questions He is asked 183 of which he only answers 3 Asking questions was central to Jesus life and teachings In fact for every question he answers directly he asks literally a hundred Jesus is the Question considers the questions Jesus asks what they tell us about Jesus and more important what our responses might say about what it means to follow Him Through Jesus questions he modeled the struggle the wondering the thinking it through that helps us draw closer to God and better understand not just the answer but ourselves our process and ultimately why questions are among Jesus most profound gifts for a life of faith A
