Questions this Modern Age Puts to Islam Fethullah Gülen, 1998 The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik, 2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah Gülen a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the Gülen Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The Gülen Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only Gülen's spiritual message that has inspired people to pursue these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher's description back cover Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views This theme is approached from three specific perspectives education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue a comparison of various spiritualities and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009 The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes Contemporary Islamic Conversations Nevval Sevindi, 2008-01-01 Discusses the ideas of the most important living Muslim thinker and leader in contemporary Turkey

Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society Thomas Michel, 2014-12-07 In a world that is too often seen as a clash of civilizations some believe there is another way a path that involves engagement dialogue and respect In Thomas Michel's new book Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society he explores how Fethullah Gülen is one of those speaking most vocally in favor of a world community where different faiths and nations can come together at one table to solve the multitude of problems facing today's world Exploring the spiritual roots of Gülen and the Hizmet Movement as well as drawing parallels between his own work as a Catholic priest Michel shows how Hizmet has helped build a blueprint for intercultural communication in a time when too many voices are trying to stoke the fires of discord Through education dialogue and a respect for basic human dignity Michel finds a foundation in Gulen's faith and Hizmet's service upon which a healthy diverse society can be built

Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner, 2001

Slavery, Abolition, and Islam Haroon Bashir, 2024-12-02 Does the Qur'an promote the abolition of slavery If so why had the slave trade been allowed to operate across the Muslim world for over a millennium And why had Muslim scholars not attempted to eradicate slavery previously These were the questions that Islamic abolitionist scholars explored as they sought to challenge the slave trade throughout the nineteenth century The abolition of slavery remains a relatively new concept in human history and scholars from all religious traditions have attempted to navigate the religious and ethical questions raised by the historical acceptance of slavery In this book Haroon Bashir tells the story of how scholars promoting abolition in the name of Islam transformed the debate around Islam and slavery The book explores how abolitionism became the hegemonic position within contemporary Islamic thought and highlights the journey behind the current consensus Abolitionist arguments were not simply accepted with defenders of the slave trade using the weight of historical tradition to emphasise the legitimacy of slavery The strongly contested debates that ensued had huge ramifications for understandings of authority tradition and modernity within Islamic thought that are as present as they are past Through an exploration of these various discourses and contestations Slavery Abolition and Islam highlights how both slavery and abolition were historically challenged within the Islamic context and demonstrates how those debates continue to impact contemporary discussions In doing so the book also explores broader themes of religious traditions continuity and transformation
