Handbook of Religion and the Authority of Science James R. Lewis,Olav Hammer,2010-11-19 The present collection examines the many different ways in which religions appeal to the authority of science The result is a wide ranging and uniquely compelling study of how religions adapt their message to the challenges of the contemporary world Gleanings of Past Years, 1843-78 William Ewart Gladstone,1879 From Primitive to Indigenous James L. Cox,2016-04-22 The academic study of Indigenous Religions developed historically from missiological and anthropological sources but little analysis has been devoted to this classification within departments of religious studies Evaluating this assumption in the light of case studies drawn from Zimbabwe Alaska and shamanic traditions and in view of current debates over primitivism James Cox mounts a defence for the scholarly use of the category Indigenous Religions The Media and Religious Authority Stewart M. Hoover,2016-09-01 As the availability and use of media platforms continue to expand the cultural visibility of religion is on the rise leading to questions about religious authority Where does it come from How is it established What might be changing it The contributors to The Media and Religious Authority examine the ways in which new centers of power and influence are emerging as religions seek to brand themselves in the media age Putting their in depth incisive studies of particular instances of media production and reception in Asia Africa Latin America and North America into conversation with one another the volume explores how evolving mediations of religion in various places affect the prospects aspirations and durability of religious authority across the globe An insightful combination of theoretical groundwork and individual case studies The Media and Religious Authority invites us to rethink the relationships among the media religion and culture The contributors are Karina Kosicki Bellotti Alexandra Boutros Pauline Hope Cheong Peter Horsfield Christine Hoff Kraemer Joonseong Lee Alf Linderman Bah yyah Maroon Montr Aza Missouri and Emily Zeamer with an afterword by Lynn Schofield Clark The Collected Works of Joseph Benner Joseph Benner,2022-11-13 The Collected Works of Joseph Benner presents a comprehensive anthology of the author s illuminating writings which reflect his profound spiritual insights and philosophical explorations Renowned for his poignant style that combines clarity and depth Benner delves into themes of self realization the divine inner self and the transformative power of love This collection encompasses essays dialogues and meditative pieces that transcend conventional boundaries inviting readers to reflect on their spiritual journeys within a modern context influenced by early 20th century mysticism and metaphysics Joseph Benner a mystic and philosopher was deeply influenced by his personal experiences and the spiritual currents of his time including Theosophy and Eastern philosophies His unique background balancing a career in business with passionate spiritual pursuits allowed him to craft a narrative that resonates with seekers of truth Benner s commitment to disseminating profound spiritual knowledge culminates in these works

Authority in Crisis in French Literature, 1850-1880 Seth Whidden, 2016-04-15 By the 1850s the expansion of printing and distribution technologies provided writers with more readers and literary outlets than ever before while the ever changing political contexts occasioned by the revolutions of 1830 and 1848 brought about differing degrees of political social and literary censure and pressure Seth Whidden examines crises of literary authority in nineteenth century French literature both in response to the attempts of the Second Empire 1852 1870 to restore the unquestioned imperial authority that had been established by Napoleon I and in the aftermath of the bloody Paris Commune of 1871 In each of his chapters Whidden offers a representative case study highlighting one of several phenomena literary collaboration parody destabilized poetic form the substitution of one poetic or narrative voice with that of the man that enabled challenges to the traditional status of the writer and by extension the political authority that it reflected Whidden focuses on the play Le Supplice d une femme 1865 the Cercle Zutiste a group of writers musicians and artists who met regularly in the fall of 1871 only months after the fall of the Second Empire Arthur Rimbaud s Commune era poems and Jules Verne s 1851 Un voyage en ballon later reprinted as Un drame dans les airs in 1874 Whidden concludes with a futuristic look at authority and aucturity as it pertains to midcentury writers taking stock of the weakened authority still possible in a post Second Empire France and envisioning what kind of aucturity is still to come

The Cosmopolitan , 1909

The Church Alumni Association Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2021-08-10 Many people today including Christians of deep conviction are deciding for one reason or another to stop attending church They have been swept up by the avalanche in America known simply as the nones thereby joining the ranks of the religiously unaffiliated dubbed the church alumni association or perhaps more accurately believers in exile by Anglican Bishop John Shelby Spong Research shows that during the first two decades of the twenty first century a seismic shift occurred in the U S population away from religious institutions and toward disaffiliation While the causes and effects of this dislocation are varied and numerous by 2015 the phenomenon of shrinking faith communities was so widespread that nones became the third largest religious identity in the world behind Christians and Muslims Today there are more religious nones than Catholics or evangelicals and 36 percent of those born after 1981 do not identify with any religion Does this shift mark a loss of spirituality or do these changes point to a new global religious awakening one that affirms religious pluralism and views faith relationally rather than dogmatically as a way of the heart and not of the head While some Christians are staying put experiencing the current shift in traditional church settings this book proposes a new understanding of the church a new pattern and vision for Christian living and thinking that can transform our understanding of God others nature and ourselves Useful for individual or church study each chapter of The Church Alumni Association concludes with questions for discussion and reflection

Sermons Albert Charles Dieffenbach, 1912 Reproducing the State Jacqueline Stevens, 2020-12-08 People are said to acquire their affiliations of ethnicity race and sex at birth Hence these affiliations have long been understood to be natural independent of the ability of political societies to define who we are Reproducing the State vigorously challenges the conventional view as well as post structuralist scholarship that minimizes state power Jacqueline Stevens examines birth based theories of membership and group affiliations in political societies ranging from the Athenian polis to tribes of Australia to the French republic to the contemporary United States The book details how political societies determine the kinship rules that are used to reproduce political societies Stevens analyzes the ways that ancestral and territorial birth rules for membership in political societies pattern other intergenerational affiliations She shows how the notion of ethnicity depends on the implicit or explicit invocation of a past present or future political society She also shows how geography is used to represent political regions including continents as the seemingly natural underpinning for racial taxonomies perpetuated through miscegenation laws and birth certificates And Stevens argues that sex differences are also constituted through membership practices of political societies In its chronological and disciplinary range Reproducing the State will reward the interest of scholars in many fields including anthropology history political science sociology women s studies race studies and ethnic studies Authority and Freedom Alfred Edward John Rawlinson,1924
