analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications The Journal of Religion ,1924 Includes section Book reviews The New World ,1892
