Religion For A New Society:

The Centrality of Religion in Social Life Eileen Barker, 2021-11-18 James A Beckford's work is internationally acclaimed not only in the sociology of religion but also in other fields of the social sciences Beckford has long been arguing that the barriers that have grown up between the different sub disciplines should be broken down with those specialising in religion becoming more cognisant of new theoretical developments and sociologists in general becoming more aware of the significance of developments in the religious scene This book is a collection of essays written in Beckford's honour drawing on a number of religious themes that have been central to Beckford's interests whilst also offering a significant contribution to our understanding of the wider society A central theme is modernity and its relation to the post modern and how religion affects and is affected by the dynamics of contemporary society with the primary focus of many of the chapters being a concern with how society copes with the minority religions that have become visible with the globalising tendencies of contemporary society The contributors who come from America Asia and various parts of Europe are all internationally renowned scholars Beckford's most important publications are listed in an Appendix and the volume opens with a short account of his contribution to sociology by Eileen Barker the editor and James T Richardson

Invented Religions

Professor Carole M Cusack, 2013-06-28 Utilizing contemporary scholarship on secularization individualism and consumer capitalism this book explores religious movements founded in the West which are intentionally fictional Discordianism the Church of All Worlds the Church of the SubGenius and Jediism Their continued appeal and success principally in America but gaining wider audience through the 1980s and 1990s is chiefly as a result of underground publishing and the internet This book deals with immensely popular subject matter Jediism developed from George Lucas Star Wars films the Church of the Flying Spaghetti Monster founded by 26 year old student Bobby Henderson in 2005 as a protest against the teaching of Intelligent Design in schools Discordianism and the Church of the SubGenius which retain strong followings and participation rates among college students The Church of All Worlds focus on Gaia theology and environmental issues makes it a popular focus of attention The continued success of these groups of Invented Religions provide a unique opportunity to explore the nature of late post modern religious forms including the use of fiction as part of a bricolage for spirituality identity formation and personal orientation

Dr

Ambedkar and the Revival of Buddhism I Sangharakshita, 2016-09-15 One of the most far reaching of Sangharakshita's contributions to modern Buddhism was giving shape to the Buddhist conversion movement begun by the great Indian statesman and reformer Dr B R Ambedkar The first part tells the story of how Ambedkar overcame the suffering and struggle of his early years to become the shaper of the Indian constitution and the leader of his people to a new life The second part is a collection of 36 talks from Sangharakshita's tour of the Buddhist communities in India in 1981 2 Toward an Islamic Enlightenment M. Hakan Yavuz, 2012-12-10 M Hakan Yavuz offers an insightful and wide ranging study of the Gulen Movement one of the most imaginative developments in contemporary Islam Founded in Turkey by the Muslim thinker Fethullah Gulen the Gulen Movement aims to disseminate a moderate interpretation of Islam through faith based education Its activities have fundamentally altered religious and political discourse in Turkey in recent decades and its schools and other institutions have been established throughout Central Asia and the Balkans as well as western Europe and North America Consequently its goals and modus operandi have come under increasing scrutiny around the world Yavuz introduces readers to the movement its leader its philosophies and its practical applications After recounting Gulen's personal history he analyzes Gulen's theological outlook the structure of the movement its educational premise and promise its financial structure and its contributions particularly to debates in the Turkish public sphere its scientific outlook and its role in interfaith dialogue Towards an Islamic Enlightenment shows the many facets of the movement arguing that it is marked by an identity paradox despite its tremendous contribution to the introduction of a moderate peaceful and modern Islamic outlook so different from the Iranian or Saudi forms of radical and political Islam the Gulen Movement is at once liberal and communitarian provoking both hope and fear in its works and influence The Sociology of the Third World J. E. Goldthorpe, 1975-09-05 Social theory monograph on the sociology of developing countries discusses the gap in standard of living and income distribution between rich and poor countries including such topics as population growth natural resources economic conditions colonialism economic development the family urbanization education psychological aspects cultural factors religion industrialization politics etc References and statistical tables History, Religion, and Antisemitism Gavin I. Langmuir, 1990-05-08 Gavin I Langmuir's work on the formation and nature of antisemitism has earned him an international reputation In History Religion and Antisemitism he bravely confronts the problems that arise when historians have to describe and explain religious phenomena as any historian of antisemitism must How and to what extent can the historian be objective Is it possible to discuss Christian attitudes toward Jews for example without adopting the historical explanations of those whose thoughts and actions one is discussing What exactly does the historian mean by religion or religious Langmuir's original and stimulating responses to these questions reflect his inquiry into the approaches of anthropology sociology and psychology and into recent empirical research on the functioning of the mind and the nature of thought His distinction between religiosity a property of individuals and religion a social phenomenon allows him to place unusual emphasis on the role of religious doubts and tensions and the irrationality they can produce Defining antisemitism as irrational beliefs about Jews he distinguishes Christian anti Judaism from Christian antisemitism demonstrates that antisemitism emerged in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries because of rising Christian doubts and sketches how the revolutionary changes in religion and mentality in the modern period brought new faiths new kinds of religious doubt and a
