Hill, Bernard Spilka, 2018-07-23 Keeping up with the rapidly growing research base the leading graduate level psychology of religion text is now in a fully updated fifth edition It takes a balanced empirically driven approach to understanding the role of religion in individual functioning and social behavior Integrating research on numerous different faith traditions the book addresses the quest for meaning links between religion and biology religious thought belief and behavior across the lifespan experiential dimensions of religion and spirituality the social psychology of religious organizations and connections to coping adjustment and mental disorder Chapter opening quotations and topical research boxes enhance the readability of this highly instructive text New to This Edition New topics cognitive science of religion religion and violence and groups that advocate terrorist tactics The latest empirical findings including hundreds of new references Expanded discussion of atheism and varieties of nonbelief More research on religions outside the Judeo Christian tradition particularly Islam State of the art research methods including techniques for assessing neurological states

Two Different Worlds Charles E. Garrison, 1988 Challenging the assumption that the biblical text is absolutist this study renders the wall of division between Christian absolutism and cultural relativism indefensible Its encouraging argument draws upon sociology anthropology and analysis of the biblical text Religion, Science, and Magic : In Concert and in Conflict Jacob Neusner Professor of Religion University of South Florida, Ernest S. Frerichs Director Brown University Program in Judaic Studies, Paul Virgil McCracken Flesher Assistant Professor of the History and Literature of Religion Northwestern University, 1989-06-01 Every culture makes the distinction between true religion and magic regarding one action and its result as miraculous while rejecting another as the work of the devil Surveying such topics as Babylonian witchcraft Jesus the magician magic in Hasidism and Kabbalah and magic in Anglo Saxon England these ten essays provide a rigorous examination of the history of this distinction in Christianity and Judaism Written by such distinguished scholars as Jacob Neusner Hans Penner Howard Kee Tzvi Abusch Susan R Garrett and Moshe Idel the essays explore a broad range of topics including how certain social groups sort out approved practices and beliefs from those that are disapproved providing fresh insight into how groups define themselves magic as an insider s term for the outsider s religion and the tendency of religious traditions to exclude the magical In addition the collection provides illuminating social cultural and anthropological explanations for the prominence of the magical in certain periods and literature The Nature of Religious Language Stanley E. Porter, 1996-01-01 The papers in this volume were presented at a conference held at the Roehampton Institute London in February 1995 and are concerned with either theological or literary issues related to the nature of religious language The papers suggest further issues that are still unresolved about the nature of religious language from its early usage in the biblical texts to its recent use in contemporary writing and religious discourse
