Religious Literature Of The West:

Literature, Religion, and East/West Comparison Anthony C. Yu, 2005 This book pays critical homage to the eminent comparatist of Chinese and Western literature and religion Anthony C Yu of The University of Chicago Broadly comparative cross cultural and interdisciplinary in scope the volume consists of an introductory essay on Yu s scholarly career and thirteen additional essays on topics such as literary texts and traditions of varying provenance and periods ranging from ancient Greece medieval Europe and nineteenth and twentieth century England and America to China from the classical to modern periods The disciplines and areas of research that the essays draw into constructive engagement with one another include comparative literature religion and literature history of religions or comparative religion religion and social thought and the study of myth Eric Ziolkowski is Professor and Head of the Department of Religious Studies at Lafayette College

Religious Texts of the Oral Tradition from Western New-Guinea (Irian Jaya) ,1975 Forbidden Texts on the Western Frontier: The Christian Apocrypha in North American Perspectives Tony Burke, 2015-07-27 North American study of the Christian Apocrypha is known principally for its interest in using noncanonical texts to reconstruct the life and teachings of Jesus and for its support of Walter Bauer s theory on the development of early Christianity The papers in this volume presented in September 2013 at York University in Toronto challenge that simplistic assessment by demonstrating that U S and Canadian scholarship on the Christian Apocrypha is rich and diverse The topics covered in the papers include new developments in the study of canon formation the interplay of Christian Apocrypha and texts from the Nag Hammadi library digital humanities resources for reconstructing apocryphal texts and the value of studying late antique apocrypha Among the highlights of the collection are papers from a panel by three celebrated New Testament scholars reassessing the significance of the Christian Apocrypha for the study of the historical Jesus Forbidden Texts on the Western Frontier demonstrates the depth and breadth of Christian Apocrypha studies in North America and offers a glimpse at the achievements that lie ahead in the field Religion, Children's Literature, and Modernity in Western Europe, 1750-2000 Jan de Maeyer, 2005 In this book some 25 scholars focus on the relationship between religion children s literature and modernity in Western Europe since the Enlightenment c 1750 They examine various aspects of the phenomenon of children s literature such as types of texts age of readers position of authors design and illustration The role of religion in giving meaning both in a substantive sense as well as through the institutionalised churches is studied from an interdenominational point of view Judaism Roman Catholicism Protestantism and Anglicanism Finally the contribution of pedagogy and child psychology in the interaction between modernity religion and children s literature is also discussed Various articles give a broad overview of the tensions between aesthetics and ethics and the demand for cultural autonomy in the development of children s literature Children s bibles and missionary stories played an important part in the growing diversification of children s literature as did the publication of illustrated reviews for children Remarkable differences are highlighted in the involvement of religious societies and institutions episcopally approved publishing houses and supervisory bodies in the publication distribution and supervision of children s literature This volume adopts a comparative approach in exploring the underlying religious ideological and cultural dimensions of children s literature in modern society Western Religions Reader Thomas A. Robinson,James Linville,Atif Khalil,Kevin MvGeough,2020-11-19 Designed as an introductory reader for a Western Religions course this eBook provides key texts for illustrating the western religious traditions Judaism Christianity Islam with a background chapter on ancient religions of the Mediterranean and Mesopotamian worlds There are 46 passages 17 symbols 3 Quick Facts pages 3 audio clips the shofar the Gregorian chant and the Muslim call to prayer and links to about 200 audio files of technical terms related to the western religious traditions Each selection has an introduction and footnotes to help the reader understand the context of the passage This eBook uses material slightly edited from our larger World Religions Reader an eBook designed for a full World Religions course Annotated and edited by Thomas Robinson with contributions from colleagues at the University of Lethbridge Professors James Linville Atif Khalil and Kevin McGeough Western Religions: Understanding Our Religious World Thomas Robinson,2020-12-22 An introduction to Western Religions Judaism Christianity and Islam covering their History Beliefs Structure and Practices Richly illustrated with colourful photos illustrations maps and charts as well as audio files and a selection of relevant ancient texts This eBOOK provides a solid jargon free introduction to western religious traditions for college level classes or for any reader seeking a neutral presentation of Judaism Christianity and Islam by an author who has taught extensively in the field of religion for over three decades Religion and Magic in Western Culture Daniel Dubuisson,2016-04-08 In the history of Western culture theology and science a strict dichotomy exists between religion and magic religion as the intellectually and morally superior one magic as the primitive superstitious demonic other The present work aims to break with this tradition and traces the origin of this dichotomy as well as its many purposes Whose powers does it serve Which interests and ideological stakes does it conceal Moreover the author proposes a new epistemological framework for the study of magisms as well as their rehumanisation and argues for a rehabilitation of their studies World Religions Reader Thomas Robinson,Hillary Rodrigues,2020-12-13 Designed as an introductory reader for a World Religions course this eBook provides key texts from Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism Daoism Shintoism Judaism Christianity and Islam along with a chapter on ancient religions of the Mediterranean and Mesopotamian worlds There are 125 passages 33 symbols 22 photos 10 Quick Facts pages 7 audio clips and links to hundreds of audio files of technical terms related to the study of religion Each textual selection has an introduction and footnotes to help the reader understand the context of the passage Religion and Violence in Western Traditions André Gagné,Jennifer Guyver,Gerbern S. Oegema,2021-09-16 This book examines the connection between religion and violence in the Western traditions of the three Abrahamic faiths from ancient to modern times It addresses a gap in the scholarly debate on the nature of religious violence by bringing scholars that specialize in pre modern religions and scriptural traditions into the same sphere of discussion as those specializing in contemporary manifestations of religious violence Moving beyond the question of the authenticity of religious violence this book brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines Contributors explore the central role that religious texts have played in encouraging as well as confronting violence The interdisciplinary conversation that takes place challenges assumptions that religious violence is a modern problem that can be fully understood without reference to religious scriptures beliefs or history Each chapter focuses its analysis on a particular case study from a distinct historical period Taken as a whole these chapters attest to the persistent relationship between religion and violence that links the ancient and contemporary worlds This is a dynamic collection of explorations into how religion and violence intersect As such it will be a key resource for any scholar of Religious Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as Christian Jewish and Islamic Studies The Western Karaim Torah Michał Németh, 2021-03-01 This volume offers the critical edition and an English translation of the oldest translation of the Pentateuch into Western Karaim copied in 1720 by Simcha ben Chananel died 1723 The manuscript was compared against several other Karaim translations of the Torah as well as with the standard text of the Hebrew Bible The author provides a description of the manuscript s language and an outline of the history of Western Karaim translations of the Torah to better understand the its philological and historical background
