Religious Politics And Communal Violence:

Religious Politics and Communal Violence Steven Wilkinson, 2005 This volume offers political and institutional explanations for communal conflicts in India The volume compiles influential and lesser known yet significant interventions to present the most comprehensive social scientific analysis of communal violence in India Religious Politics and

Communal Violence Mohd. Iqbal Ahmed, 2012 Communal Violence, Forced Migration and the State Sanjeevini Badigar Lokhande, 2016-10-13 When violence occurs in democracies it is often characterized as an aberration The state that saw human rights violations and failure of law and order in Gujarat in 2002 emerged even if by its own admission as a model for good governance Communal Violence Forced Migration and the State through an account of displaced Muslims challenges this notion Through the unlikely yet probing lens of displacement it offers fresh insight into communal violence and is an important resource for the emerging domain of forced migration and the changing nature of the state in a globalized world

 Sebastian Schwecke, 2012-12-06 Applying an intercultural and comparative theoretical approach across Asia and Africa this book analyses the rise and moderation of political movements in developing societies which mobilise popular support with references to conceptions of cultural identity The author includes not only the Hindu nationalist movement but also many Islamist political movements in a single category New Cultural Identitarian Political Movements NCIPM Demonstrating significant similarities in the pattern of evolution between these and European Christian Democracy the book provides an instrument for the analysis of these movements outside the parameters of the fundamentalism debate The book looks at a number of key variables for understanding the evolution of NCIPM and it goes on to analyse the transition of developing societies from rent based political economies to capitalism and the partial failure of this transition process It argues that there is a need to incorporate economic and class analysis in the study of political processes in developing societies against the continuing emphasis on cultural factors associated with the cultural turn of social sciences The book is an interesting contribution to studies in South Asian Politics as well as Comparative Politics Religion, Violence, and Local Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy, 2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography Violence in Nigeria Patricia Taft,Nate Haken,2015-03-03

This book takes a quantitative look at ICT generated event data to highlight current trends and issues in Nigeria at the local state and national levels Without emphasizing a specific policy or agenda it provides context and perspective on the relative spatial temporal distribution of conflict factors in Nigeria The analysis of violence at state and local levels reveals a fractal pattern of overlapping ecosystems of conflict risk that must be understood for effective conflict sensitive approaches to development and direct conflict mitigation efforts Moving beyond analyses that use a broad religious ethnic or historical lens this book focuses on the country s 774 local government areas and incorporates over 10 000 incidents coded by location date and indicator to identify patterns in conflict risk between 2009 and 2013 It is the first book to track conflict in Nigeria during this period which covers the Amnesty Agreement in the Niger Delta and the birth of Boko Haram in the North It also includes conflict risk heat maps of each state and trend lines of violence The authors conclude with a discussion of the nuanced factors that lead to escalating violence such as resource competition and trends in terrorism during this critical point in Nigeria s history Violence in Nigeria is designed as a reference for researchers and practitioners working in security peacebuilding and development including policy makers intelligence experts diplomats national defense and homeland security experts Advanced level students studying public policy international relations or computer science will also find this book useful as a secondary textbook or reference New Perspectives in Political Ethnography Lauren Joseph,Matthew Mahler,Javier Auyero,2007-09-20 The use of ethnographic research social research based on the observation of individuals or institutions where the researcher becomes part of the group or very close to the group to better understand their actions is becoming more and more of a prevalent methodology within sociology As ethnography gains prominence within the discipline its focus theoretical underpinnings and narrative styles are also expanding to the yet unexamined worlds and institutions of society Politics political institutions and those working in politics state officials politicians and activists have so far missed the lens of the ethnographer As a group politicians and those in politics can be found in every corner of the world While political systems and politicians are by no means the same in every country what brings these people together to be part of the political process Ethnography is uniquely equipped to look microscopically at the foundations of political institutions and their attendant set of practices just as it is ideally suited to explain why political actors behave the way they do and to identify the causes processes and outcomes that are part and parcel of political life The volume based on a special issue of Qualitative Sociology has a two fold purpose to bring politics into the ethnographic literature and of ethnography in studies of politics The case studies included are based on the research of ethnographers studying the various level of politics in Brazil Japan El Salvador Bosnia the Philippines India and the United States It will be of interest to those in the sociology of politics political science and those looking for ethnographic research on a global level

The New Governance of Religious Diversity Tariq Modood, Thomas Sealy, 2024-06-11 Religious diversity is a key feature of countries across the world today but it also presents governments with very real challenges Controversies around religious free speech symbols social values and morals and the role of faith leaders as critical voices are just a few of the issues that have given rise to fierce social political and scholarly debate So how do states include and accommodate religious diversity and should this change What are the key difficulties facing states when it comes to governing religious diversity Understanding this complex phenomenon means thinking through secularism liberalism multiculturalism and nationalism in theory and practice In this new book Tariq Modood and Thomas Sealy draw on original research to present new ways of analysing the governance of religious diversity in different regions of the world Identifying the key challenges at stake they also argue for a new statement of multiculturalism in relation to the governance of religious diversity that of multiculturalised secularism which represents a constructive and productive response to the reality of religiously plural societies
