Gregg, 2016-05-13 Defoe's Writings and Manliness is a timely intervention in Defoe studies and in the study of masculinity in eighteenth century literature more generally Arguing that Defoe's writings insistently returned to the issues of manliness and its contrary effeminacy this book reveals how he drew upon a complex and diverse range of discourses through which masculinity was discussed in the period It is for this reason that this book crosses over and moves between modern paradigms for the analysis of eighteenth century masculinity to assess Defoe's men A combination of Defoe's clarity of vision a spirit of contrariness and a streak of moral didacticism resulted in an idiosyncratic and restless testing of the forces surrounding his period's ideas of manliness Defoe's men are men but they are never unproblematically so they display a contrariness which indicates that a failure of manliness is never very far away Divine Enticement: Theological Seductions Karmen Mackendrick, 2013 Divine Enticement argues for a reconception of theology and its subject matter as modes of seduction of both body and mind Theological language as evocation opens onto rereadings of faith sacrament ethics prayer and scripture The conclusion argues for a sense of theology as calling upon infinite possibility Organic Homiletic Richard Hee-Chun Park, 2006 Organic form theory of Romanticism helps writers artists and preachers free themselves from potentially limiting norms and rules of form Organic Homiletic Samuel T Coleridge Henry G Davis and the New Homiletic will inspire preachers to express their individual voices and create their own authentic forms by offering preachers innovative methods to creatively imitate blend and mix a wide variety of sermon forms The book is a motivator for preachers to intuitively discover sermon content in the rhetorical context of a given preaching situation and to develop that content utilizing organic form in the process of sermon preparation Organic Homiletic is a must read for seminarians experienced preachers creative writers and artists all those
