Remaking Of Istanbul Portrait Of An Ottoman City In The Nineteenth Century:

The Remaking of Istanbul Zeynep Çelik, 2023-11-15 Zeynep Çelik examines the changing face of Istanbul during the period when European cultural and economic influence intensified integrating architectural analysis with discussion of broader issues of urban design and historical change Zeynep Çelik examines the changing face of Istanbul during the period when European cultural and economic influence intensified integrating architectural analysis with discussion of broader issues of urban design and historical change Sultanahmet, Istanbul's Historic Peninsula Pinar Aykaç, 2022-01-05 This book explores how the museum concept has expanded beyond the boundaries of a single building into the historic city itself through musealization Articulating the musealization of historic cities as a specific urban process the book here presents a study of the transformation of the Sultanahmet district on Istanbul's historic peninsula which has been the major focus of planning conservation and museological studies in Turkey since the 19th century as the public face of the city The author aims to offer empirically grounded and context specific insight into the role of museums in the regeneration of historic cities Musealization as an urban process varies in different geographical cultural and ideological contexts and across different time periods By discussing the Sultanahmet district as a specific context of yet another city subjected to the musealization process this book provides further insights into this important global phenomenon Transforming Empire: The Ottomans from the Mediterranean to the Indian Ocean, 2024-09-23 This book places the Ottoman Empire within the global context and provides insight into the multifaceted transimperial and transnational connections that characterized it in different periods It focuses on the connections interactions exchanges networks and flows in and around the Ottoman Empire Contributions in the book reflect the evolving and dynamic nature of the Ottoman Empire from different angles Contributors are Ali Atabey Serpil Atamaz Lee Beaudoin Emine Evered Kyle Evered Richard Eaton Ziad Fahmy G ls m G rb z K ksar Onur nal Christine Isom Verhaaren Myrsini Manney Kalogera Claudia R mer Alexander Schweig G l en Baki Tezcan Fariba Zarinebaf The City in the Islamic World, Volume 94/1 & 94/2 Salma K. Jayyusi, Renata Holod, Attilio Petruccioli, Andre Raymond, 2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020 The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion A History of the Modern Middle East William L. Cleveland, Martin Bunton, 2024-07-29 A History of the Modern Middle East examines the profound and often dramatic transformations of the region in the past two centuries from the Ottoman and Egyptian reforms through the challenge of Western imperialism to the impact of US foreign policies Built around a framework of political history while also carefully integrating social cultural and economic developments this expertly crafted account provides readers with the most comprehensive balanced and penetrating analysis of the modern Middle East The seventh edition has been substantially revised to reflect the significance of the 2011 Arab Uprisings as a major turning point in the modern history of the region A new chapter considers how regional powers especially in the Gulf are now asserting themselves more forcefully seeking to push their own interests while Russia and China contest America s position Including an annotated and updated bibliography that offers guidance to readers seeking more in depth information and incorporating an online companion website featuring quizzes timelines and instructor resources A History of the Modern Middle East remains the quintessential text for courses on Middle Eastern history

Mediterranean Encounters Fariba Zarinebaf, 2018-07-24 Mediterranean Encounters traces the layered history of Galata a Mediterranean and Black Sea port to the Ottoman conquest and its transformation into a hub of European trade and diplomacy as well as a pluralist society of the early modern period Framing the history of Ottoman European encounters within the institution of ahnames commercial and diplomatic treaties this thoughtful book offers a critical perspective on the existing scholarship For too long the Ottoman empire has been defined as an absolutist military power driven by religious conviction culturally and politically apart from the rest of Europe and devoid of a commercial policy By taking a close look at Galata Fariba Zarinebaf provides a different approach based on a history of commerce coexistence competition and collaboration through the lens of Ottoman legal records diplomatic correspondence and petitions She shows that this port was just as cosmopolitan and pluralist as any large European port and argues that the Ottoman world was not peripheral to European modernity but very much part of it

Cities of the Mediterranean Meltem Toksoz, Biray Kolluoglu, 2014-08-25 The Eastern Mediterranean is one of the world s most vibrant and vital commercial centres and for centuries the region s cities and ports have been at the heart of East West trade Taking a full and comprehensive look at the region as a whole rather than isolating individual cities or distinct cultures Cities of the Mediterranean offers a fresh and original portrait of the entire region from the 16th century to the present In this ambitious inter disciplinary study the authors examine the relationships between the Eastern Mediterranean port cities and their hinterlands as well as inland and provincial cities from many different perspectives political economic international and ecological without prioritising either Ottoman Anatolia or the Ottoman Balkans or the Arab provinces in order to think of the Eastern Mediterranean world as a coherent whole Wide ranging in scope Cities of the Mediterranean explores diverse topics weaving together history sociology geography cartography politics and economics Early chapters examine the impact of the Little Ice Age the global economy s shift from the Mediterranean to Antwerp and Amsterdam early European perceptions of the Eastern Mediterranean 19th century harbour building practices and their impact on the cities and the connections between Alexandria Izmir and Thessalonica and their vast and diverse hinterlands The book also explores political radicalism in Turkey and elsewhere as well as the illegal trade networks that linked the Balkans and Adriatic with the Mediterranean and the introduction of new technologies that led to the faster transport of people goods and information Through its penetrating analysis of the various networks that connected the ports and towns of the Mediterranean and their inhabitants throughout the Ottoman period Cities of the Mediterranean presents the region as a unified and dynamic community and paves the way for a new understanding of the subject
