Remarkable Jewish Women Rebels Rabbis And Other Women From Biblical Times To The Present:

Remarkable Jewish Women Emily Taitz, Sondra Henry, 1996 Presents brief portraits of more than eighty Jewish women and introduces the historical social and cultural backgrounds of the periods during which they lived Rashi's Daughters, Book I: Joheved Maggie Anton, 2007-07-31 The first novel in a dramatic trilogy set in eleventh century France about the lives and loves of three daughters of the great Talmud scholar In 1068 the scholar Salomon ben Isaac returns home to Troyes France to take over the family winemaking business and embark on a path that will indelibly influence the Jewish world writing the first Talmud commentary and secretly teaching Talmud to his daughters Joheved the eldest of his three girls finds her mind and spirit awakened by religious study but knowing the risk she must keep her passion for learning and prayer hidden When she becomes betrothed to Meir ben Samuel she is forced to choose between marital happiness and being true to her love of the Talmud Rich in period detail and drama Joheved is a must read for fans of Tracy Chevalier's Girl With a Pearl Earring Portraits of Jewish-American Heroes Malka Drucker, 2017-01-17 From its beginnings America founded on religious freedom has been a land of opportunity for Jews socially as well as spiritually Here are profiles of twenty one individuals who have enriched America and the lives of Americans through their achievements in such areas as science sports film making and civil rights An inspiring journey through more than two centuries of American Jewish history The Sacred Calling Rebecca Einstein Schorr, Alysa Mendelson Graf, 2016-05-17 Women have been rabbis for over forty years No longer are women rabbis a unique phenomenon rather they are part of the fabric of Jewish life In this anthology rabbis and scholars from across the Jewish world reflect back on the historic significance of women in the rabbinate and explore issues related to both the professional and personal lives of women rabbis This collection examines the ways in which the reality of women in the rabbinate has impacted on all aspects of Jewish life including congregational culture liturgical development life cycle ritual the Jewish healing movement spirituality theology and more Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Lillian Wald Marjorie N. Feld, 2012-09-01 Founder of Henry Street Settlement on New York's Lower East Side as well as the Visiting Nurse Service of New York Lillian Wald 1867 1940 was a remarkable social welfare activist She was also a second generation German Jewish immigrant who developed close associations with Jewish New York even as she consistently dismissed claims that her work emerged from a fundamentally Jewish calling Challenging the conventional understanding of the Progressive movement as having its origins in Anglo Protestant teachings Marjorie Feld offers a critical biography of Wald in which she examines the crucial and complex significance of Wald's ethnicity to her life's work In addition by studying the Jewish community's response to Wald throughout her public career from 1893 to 1933 Feld demonstrates the changing landscape of identity politics in the first half of the twentieth century Feld argues that Wald's innovative reform work was the product of both her own family's experience with immigration and assimilation as Jews in late nineteenth century Rochester New York and her encounter with Progressive ideals at her settlement house in Manhattan

As an ethnic working on behalf of other ethnics Wald developed a universal vision that was at odds with the ethnic particularism with which she is now identified These tensions between universalism and particularism assimilation and group belonging persist to this day Thus Feld concludes with an exploration of how after her death Wald s accomplishments have been remembered in popular perceptions and scholarly works For the first time Feld locates Wald in the ethnic landscape of her own time as well as ours Blessed is the Daughter Carolyn Starman Hessel,1999 Starting with great women in the Bible and continuing through the ages down to the end of the twentieth century this book shows in word and image how important the contribution of Jewish women has been for the past 4000 years 25 Read-Aloud Mini-Plays Erin Fry,2000-06 Quick two page read aloud plays to spark student interest in ancient world history Perfect for kicking off a new lesson or reviewing material Topics include the first Pyramid the Han Dynasty Romulus and Remus and 22 more Plus background information standards based research activities and resource tips For use with Grades 4 8 Rosalyn Yalow - Scientist With A Fighting Spirit Dr. Chanchal Kumar Manna,2023-11-08 Rosalyn Sussman Yalow the second American woman to win the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine born in 1921 in New York city USA of poor Jewish parents Clara and Simon Sussman Due to her talents firm determination she overcome many difficulties in obtaining her Ph D degree in Physics in 1945 from Illinois University USA Although she was a student of Nuclear Physics but she made profound contribution in the field of Physiological Sciences With the joint collaboration of another talented Physician Solomon Berson they did ground breaking research for a period of 22 years and developed an authentic technique known as radioimmunoassay RIA for the treatment of Type II diabetes and other critical diseases In 1977 Yalow received the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine for her and Berson s development of RIA Yalow received the award without Berson who died in 1972 Despite her outstanding scientific career Prof Yalow incorporated her home life wherever she could in her work life She married Yaron Yalow fellow colleague had two wonderful children Benjamin and Elenna and had a Laboratory for the expression of her ideas in the Scientific World She was not a feminist but emphasized the need of women Scientist to come forward and pursue advanced education and research Women in American History Peg A.
