

BEAN SOUP

- 1 C. navy beans
- 4 C. water (up to 6)
- 1 ham bone (leave some meat on)
- 1 onion chopped
- 1 carrot sliced
- 1 stalk celery chopped
- $\frac{1}{2}$ C. tomato puree or juice or stewed tomatoes
- $\frac{1}{8}$ tsp. dry mustard

Wash beans and cover with water, soak overnight. Drain. Place all ingredients in pressure cooker. Season with salt and pepper. Cover. Allow steam to flow. Cook for 30 min. with pressure regulator rocking gently. (simmer on stove longer) Let cooker cool down on its own, about 20 min. With potato masher, give gentle mashing to get more bean flavor.

Remember When Family Friends Recipes:

Recipes for and from Family and Friends Sangeeta Joshi, 2024-10-30 Cooking is an art similar to painting or music composition Just as there are seven basic colors and twelve notes in music so are the flavors of food varieties of taste buds five and their numbers It is the ability of combining of flavors which makes a recipe of food unique and the chef a chosen one Great cooking is also about inspiring people with food made from simple things from a basic kitchen and need not necessarily be a fancy dish prepared from exotic ingredients This book is a compendium of simple as well as exquisite dishes originating from many regions of our large and diverse country Several of these recipes have been gratuitously shared by family and friends

Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey, 2025-05 Georgia's Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state's oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J Frey This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology agriculture transportation communication and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens Most of the recipes are previously unpublished waiting in archives to be rediscovered Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful For the first time Georgians have a list of the state's early cookbooks and its cooking experts Readers will learn where to find Georgia's oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites literally and figuratively for a taste of Georgia's past

Remembering Anne Beach Carolyn Day, 2025-02-28 Remembering Anne Beach pulls back the veil on the challenges of research the problems of gaps in archives and the long process involved in constructing historical narratives Through the tragic tale of an ill fated couple and their disapproving families this microhistory explores not only forbidden love but also marriage illness death disability and scandal in eighteenth century society Drawing on the story of Anne Beach the author sheds light on the lost experiences of early modern women as well as those with mental afflictions who have left us mere fragments of their lived experiences In weaving a tragic narrative Day also tackles the problem of archival silences and provides the reader with insight into the highs and lows of the research process With charm and clarity Day describes the frustration skill determination obsession and sheer luck required to be able to provide a diligent more inclusive perception of our past

The Literature of Food Nicola Humble,2020-02-06 Why are so many literary texts preoccupied with food The Literature of Food explores this question by looking at the continually shifting relationship between two sorts of foods the real and the imagined Focusing particularly on Britain and North America from the early 19th century to the present it covers a wide range of issues including the politics of food food as performance and its intersections with gender class fear and disgust Combining the insights of food studies and literary analysis Nicola Humble considers the multifarious ways in which food both works and plays within texts and the variety of functions ideological mimetic symbolic structural affective which it serves Carefully designed and structured for use on the growing number of literature of food courses it examines the food of modernism post modernism the realist novel and children s literature and asks what happens when we treat cook books as literary texts From food memoirs to the changing role of the servant experimental cook books to the cannibalistic fears in infant picture books The Literature of Food demonstrates that food is always richer and stranger than we think
