River Teeth:

River Teeth David James Duncan, 1996-06-01 In his passionate luminous novels David James Duncan has won the devotion of countless critics and readers earning comparisons to Harper Lee Tom Robbins and J D Salinger to name just a few Now Duncan distills his remarkable powers of observation into this unique collection of short stories and essays At the heart of Duncan s tales are characters undergoing the complex and violent process of transformation with results both painful and wondrous Equally affecting are his nonfiction reminiscences the river teeth of the title He likens his memories to the remains of old growth trees that fall into Northwestern rivers and are sculpted by time and water These experiences shaped by his own river of time are related with the art and grace of a master storyteller In River Teeth a uniquely gifted American writer blends two forms taking us into the rivers of truth and make believe and all that lies in between River Teeth Joe Mackall, Daniel W. Lehman, 2020-02-15 To celebrate twenty years of introducing talented new writers to readers and publishing great nonfiction the founding editors Joe Mackall and Daniel W Lehman have selected their all time favorite essays published in River Teeth in this stunning collection River Teeth , 2008 Shambhala & the Caregiving Heart of the World Verity Jenkins, 2021-05-01 Grandsy s eyes light up for just a few moments and then the sparkle dies out I m too tired to go out for food she said No big deal Ray replies But it is a big deal Grandsy is in some kind of funk Something IS really wrong although no one is being direct about it Later Ray discovers that Grandsy has been diagnosed with Alzheimer s Dementia How can Ray battle this insidious disease and bring her beloved Grandsy back to life Ray has learned the power of the sacred Quest and if there ever was a need for one it is now Fa had told Ray stories of the Elixir of Immortality residing in Shambhala a hidden kingdom accessible only through the sacred Quest Using clues Fa left in a storage locker Ray plays on her Mum s own desire to find Fa In the darkest and most exciting Ray Adventure yet Ray reaches new heights of deception and misdirection that launch them on a journey into an ancient dystopian world hidden beneath Nepal Little do they know it but Ray and her Mother have arrived at the most turbulent moment in the political history of Nepal Ray s Mum is invited on a double date with a member of Nepal s royal family Flattered and fed up with Ray s double dealing her Mum goes on her own adventure That very night the royal family is massacred and Ray s Mum is taken hostage Ray enlists the help of Devi a trained protector of Shambhala and a Gurkha pilot who has a surprising knack of blacking out to avoid going against a direct order Ray lands the float plane in a narrow canyon on the Kali Gandaki river Together they succeed in rescuing her Mother from the well guarded Ranighat palace Returning to her Quest for Shambhala Ray parachutes into the Yalbang Monastery literally running into the Buddha in the courtyard There she meets the caregiver for Alexandra David Neel the greatest adventurer of the inner and outer realms who shares with Ray the long kept secret location to the entrance of Shambhala The action ratchets up a notch at a Bon Po ceremony attended by scores of wrathful deities Ray and Devi enter a tum mo competition that reveals to them the hidden powers of the breath and mind Ray learns she can melt ice on a frozen lake through her body heat alone Following the ceremony an enigmatic Bon Po shaman leads Ray to the entrance of Shambhala Once inside she discovers it s a false Shambhala that traps people for many lifetimes addicting them to hallucinatory local honey Are the Elixir of Immortality Shambhala false hopes Could it be that she had the answer to her Quest all along

Mountains of Light R. Mark Liebenow,2012-03-01 The environment may surround us but when that environment is a natural wonder like Yosemite National Park it also reaches what s inside us For Mark Liebenow Yosemite did just that and did so when he needed it most In Mountains of Light winner of the River Teeth Literary Nonfiction Prize Liebenow takes us deep into the heart of this wilderness introducing us to its grand and subtle marvels and to the observations reflections and insights its scenery evokes

Acting as our guide Liebenow calls on the spirit and legacy of naturalist John Muir to rediscover nature and recover his own exuberance for life Whether celebrating the giant sequoias massive granite mountains and wild untamed rivers or losing himself on an unmarked trail Liebenow is always accompanied by thoughts of his wife of eighteen years whose recent and sudden death tempers and informs his journey Interwoven with his experiences are the stories of the Native Americans who lived in the valley for thousands of years and of the early settlers who followed Melding documentary with introspection environmental reportage with a search for meaning Liebenow s work draws on the lore of geology botany biology and history to show how each aspect of the environment is connected to the rest Watch the Mountains of Light book trailer on YouTube

The Untouched Minutes Donald Morrill,2004-01-01 What would you be willing to do to save someone perhaps someone you loved On a moment s notice for instance would you lunge between that person and an assailant s knife strike In that same situation what would you be willing do for yourself And what if there were nothing ultimately to be done These and other such questions live in the untouched minutes questions most of us are fortunately never compelled to answer though the media exposes us daily to the stories of those who are In February 2001 on what started out as a typical Sunday afternoon Donald Morrill and his wife Lisa Birnbaum became the victims of a home invasion and found themselves faced with the specter of ultimate contingency In The Untouched Minutes Morrill recounts and examines the events of that day and its aftermath as well as the circumstances surrounding the murders of Dartmouth professors Half and Suzanne Zantop which occurred the same week Set against the unfolding drama of post 9 11 America The Untouched Minutes explores how violence and the threat of violence color and recast one s assumptions and can plot the course of people facing the unknown the unknowable the irredeemable Morrill presents a memorable portrait of what it means to take back the life that finally wasn t taken and in the process he offers a powerful meditation on terror and security home and travel art race luck and our individual places in the wider world

Conversations with American Writers Dale Brown,2008-04-14 For years Dale Brown has interviewed American writers listening particularly for what they have to say about wrestling with the sacred in their writing In this book a follow up to his earlier collection Of Fiction and Faith Brown gives readers the opportunity to listen in on his thoughtful conversations with ten contemporary writers While many of these authors shy away from being labeled Christian writers they all have much truth to tell through their work as they struggle with expressing both faith and doubt The conversations recorded here offer a fresh dialogue on the power of art to sustain faith in unexpected ways Interviews with Eleanor Taylor Bland David James Duncan Terence Faherty Ernest Gaines Philip Gulley Ron Hansen Silas House Jan Karon Sheri Reynolds Lee Smith

Romances with Schools John I. Goodlad, 2016-07-18

John I Goodlad has been an unflagging voice for humanistic ideals in education for more than six decades and has helped reframe the modern discourse on the role and function of schools For Goodlad the goal of public education is to help children become free and full participants in a democratic society by instilling them with a love of learning and a sense of civic responsibility goals that are incompatible with our present system of schooling that teaches to standardized tests In Romances with Schools John Goodlad steps out from behind the public persona of distinguished scholar and advocate for public schooling to offer a moving personal account of a life devoted to educating the young He deftly interweaves fascinating personal details with reflections on many of the larger issues in education that he has explored throughout his career John s early encounters with formal schooling began just before the Great Depression in Canada with the humble North Star School From there we are taken through sixty plus years in education starting with John s first teaching job as the sole instructor of a one room schoolhouse through his years as an education activist dean of the UCLA Graduate School of Education and national voice for educational renewal Along the way he treats us to vivid characterizations of the men women and above all children who shaped him as a person and inspired his thinking on education Romances with Schools is both a poignant memoir and a persuasive argument for the need to renew public education to fit the demands of a free society Stephen Goodlad John s son has written a moving Prologue to the book that provides behind the scenes insight into John s life An Epilogue by Roger Soder a long time colleague places John s work of school renewal in the context of political change
