River Town Two Years On The Yangtze:

River Town Peter Hessler, 2002 Records the author's experiences as a Peace Corps English teacher in the small Chinese city of Fuling during which time he witnessed such events as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the construction of the Three Gorges Dam

River Town Peter Hessler, 2001 When Peter Hessler went to China in the late 1990s he expected to spend a couple of peaceful years teaching English in the town of Fuling on the Yangtze River But what he experienced the natural beauty cultural tension and complex process of understanding that takes place when one is thrust into a radically different society surpassed anything he could have imagined Hessler observes firsthand how major events such as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the controversial construction of the Three Gorges Dam have affected even the people of a remote town like Fuling Poignant thoughtful and utterly compelling River Town is an unforgettable portrait of a place caught mid river in time much like China itself a country seeking to understand both what it was and what it will one day become

River Town Peter Hessler, 2006 In the heart of China's Sichuan province tucked away amid the terraced hills of the Yangtze River valley lies the remote town of Fuling Like many other small cities in this vast and ever evolving country Fuling is shifting gears and heading down a new path one of change and vitality tension and reform disruption and growth Its position at the crossroads came into sharp focus when the author arrived as a Peace Corps volunteer marking the first time in more than half a century that the city had an American resident The author taught English and American literature at the local college but it was his students who taught him about the ways of Fuling and about the complex process of understanding that takes place when one is immersed in a radically different society This book is a portrait of a city that much like China itself is seeking to understand both what it was and what it someday will be Back cover

The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries, 2010-09-23 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People's Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close

The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy Xin Zhang, Xiaobin Jian, 2020-12-30 The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy presents the Third Space as a new frame through which foreign language pedagogy is conceptualized as a pedagogy of negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture The field of Chinese as a foreign language CFL in the past decades has been expanding rapidly at the beginning and intermediate levels yet it is lacking in scholarship on the true advanced level both in theory building and research supported curriculum and material development This book argues that it is time for CFL to go beyond merely satisfying the desire of gazing at the other whether it is curiosity about the other or superiority over the other to focusing on learning to work with the other It reimagines the field as co constructing a transcultural Third Space where learners are becoming experts in negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture It presents a range of research based CFL pedagogical scholarship and practices especially relevant to the advanced level and to the goal of enabling learners to go past fans or critics to become actors players in the game of cross lingual and intercultural cooperation

Writing Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It s a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don t think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose

The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism Steven G. Kellman, Natasha Lvovich, 2021-09-30 Though it might seem as modern as Samuel Beckett Joseph Conrad and Vladimir Nabokov translingual writing texts by authors using more than one language or a language other than their primary one has an ancient pedigree The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism aims to provide a comprehensive overview of translingual literature in a wide variety of languages throughout the world from ancient to modern times The volume includes sections on translingual genres with chapters on memoir poetry fiction drama and cinema ancient medieval and modern translingualism global perspectives chapters overseeing European African and Asian languages Combining chapters from lead specialists in the field this volume will be of interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the vibrant area of translingual literature Attracting scholars from a variety of disciplines this interdisciplinary and pioneering Handbook will advance current scholarship of the permutations of languages among authors throughout time

For Tibet, With Love Isabel Losada, 2011-06-06 Sometimes you just have to do something don't you Sometimes an injustice comes along and you think No this cannot be and rather than just turn off the TV you know it's time to act So begins Isabel Losada's extraordinary FOR TIBET WITH LOVE in which she explores whether it's possible for an ordinary person to change the world just a little and if something so serious can be achieved with joy in one's heart From visits to Nepal and Tibet to meetings with the Chinese ambassador and Tibetan awareness raising groups Isabel single handedly hatches a stunning PR coup involving Nelson's Column a 15 metre banner and a base jumping parachutist that captured headlines worldwide And then she meets the Dalai Lama Warm and funny moving and thought provoking the astonishing FOR TIBET WITH LOVE celebrates the fact that we can make a difference
