Rivette Texts And Interviews:

Rivette Jacques Rivette, 1977 Movies as Politics Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2023-09-01 In this new collection of reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum focuses on the political and social dynamics of the contemporary movie scene Rosenbaum widely regarded as the most gifted contemporary American commentator on the cinema explores the many links between film and our ideological identities as individuals and as a society Readers will find revealing examinations of for example racial stereotyping in the debates surrounding Do the Right Thing key films from Africa China Japan and Taiwan Hollywood musicals and French serials and the cultural amnesia accompanying cinematic treatments of the Russian Revolution the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War From Schindler's List Star Wars Pulp Fiction Forrest Gump The Piano and Ace Ventura Pet Detective to the maverick careers of Orson Welles Jacques Tati Nicholas Ray Chantal Akerman Todd Haynes and Andrei Tarkovsky Rosenbaum offers a polemically pointed survey that makes clear the high stakes involved in every aspect of filmmaking and filmgoing In this new collection of reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum focuses on the political and social dynamics of the contemporary movie scene Rosenbaum widely regarded as the most gifted contemporary American commentator on the cinema explores the many The Death of Classical Cinema Joe McElhaney, 2012-02-01 The Death of Classical Cinema uncovers the extremely rich yet insufficiently explored dialogue between classical and modernist cinema examining the work of three classical filmmakers Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang and Vincente Minnelli and the films they made during the decline of the traditional Hollywood studio system Faced with the significant challenges posed by alternative art cinema and modernist filmmaking practices in the early 1960s these directors responded with films that were self conscious attempts at keeping pace with the developments in film modernism These films Lang's The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse Hitchcock's Marnie and Minnelli's Two Weeks in Another Town were widely regarded as failures at the time and bolstered critics claims concerning the irrelevance of their directors in relation to contemporary filmmaking However author Joe McElhaney sheds new light on these films by situating them in relation to such acclaimed modernist works of the period as Godard's Contempt Fellini's La dolce vita Antonioni's Red Desert and Resnais's Last Year at Marienbad He finds that these modernist films rather than being diametrically opposed in form to the work of Hitchcock Lang and Minnelli are in fact profoundly linked to them Mise en Scène and Film Style A. Martin, 2014-11-04 Styles of filmmaking have changed greatly from classical Hollywood through to our digital era So too have the ways in which film critics and scholars have analysed these transformations in film style This book explores two central style concepts mise en scène and dispositif to illuminate a wide range of film and new media examples Spanish Cinema Against Itself Steven Marsh, 2020-02-11 An extraordinary philosophical exploration of the political potential and continued political commitment of cinema today An essential read Patricia Keller Associate Professor of Spanish and Comparative Literature Cornell University Spanish Cinema Against Itself maps the evolution of Spanish surrealist and politically committed cinematic traditions from their origins in the 1930s with the work of Luis Buñuel and Salvador Dalí experimentalist Jos Val de Omar and militant documentary filmmaker Carlos Velo through to the contemporary period Framed by film theory this book traces the works of understudied and non canonical Spanish filmmakers producers and film collectives to open up alternate more cosmopolitan and philosophical spaces for film discussion In an age of the post national and the postcinematic Steven Marsh's work challenges conventional historiographical discourse the concept of national cinema and questions of form in cinematic practice In this exhilarating counter history of experimental filmmaking in Spain Steven Marsh takes up the politics of form the trouble with film history and the theoretical potential of haunting discontinuity and absence Spanish Cinema Against Itself is an important intervention in Spanish film studies and indeed in the scholarship on world cinema Rosalind Galt Professor of Film Studies King's College London

Repertory Movie Theaters of New York City Ben Davis, 2017-03-14 New York's repertory movie houses specialized in presenting films ignored by mainstream and art house audiences Curating vintage and undistributed movies from various countries they educated the public about the art of film at a time when the cinema had begun to be respected as an art form Operating on shoestring budgets in funky settings each repertory house had its own personality reflecting the preferences of the often eccentric proprietor While a few theaters existed in other cities New York offered the greatest number and variety Focusing on the active years from 1960 through 1994 this book documents the repertory movement in the context of economics and film culture

The Red Years of Cahiers du cinéma (1968-1973) Daniel Fairfax, 2025-10-01 The uprising which shook France in May 1968 also had a revolutionary effect on the country's most prominent film journal Under editors Jean Louis Comolli and Jean Narboni Cahiers du cinéma embarked on a militant turn that would govern the journal's work over the next five years Inspired by Marxist and psychoanalytic theory the red years of Cahiers du cinéma produced a theoretical outpouring that was seminal for the formation of film studies and is still of vital relevance for the contemporary audiovisual landscape The Red Years of Cahiers du Cinéma 1968 1973 gives an overview of this period in the journal's history and its aftermath combining biographical accounts of the critics who wrote for Cahiers in the post 1968 period with theoretical explorations of their key texts

Projections of Memory Richard I. Suchenski, 2016-06-30 Projections of

Memory is an exploration of a body of innovative cinematic works that utilize their extraordinary scope to construct monuments to the imagination that promise profound transformations of vision selfhood and experience This form of cinema acts as a nexus through which currents from the other arts can interpenetrate By examining the strategies of these projects in relation to one another and to the larger historical forces that shape them tracing the shifts and permutations of their forms and aspirations Projections of Memory remaps film history around some of its most ambitious achievements and helps to clarify the stakes of cinema as a twentieth century art form The Women's Companion to International Film Annette Kuhn, Susannah Radstone, 1994-01-01 Includes short entries for actresses genres studios and topics The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen, 2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen s film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen s collaborative films Wollen s solo feature film Friendship s Death 1987 and Mulvey s later collaborations Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film The collection also includes Wollen s short story Friendship s Death 1976 the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu The Bressonians Codruța Morari, 2017-07-01 How should we understand film authorship in an era when the idea of the solitary and sovereign auteur has come under attack with critics proclaiming the death of the author and the end of cinema The Bressonians provides an answer in the form of a strikingly original study of Bresson and his influence on the work of filmmakers Jean Eustache and Maurice Pialat Extending the discourse of authorship beyond the idea of a singular visionary it explores how the imperatives of excellence function within cinema s pluralistic community Bresson s example offered both an artistic legacy and a creative burden within which filmmakers reckoned in different often arduous and altogether compelling ways Improvising Cinema Gilles Mouëllic, 2025-10-01 This spirited volume explores the history and diversity of improvisation in the cinema including works by Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard and Nobuhiro Suwa Gilles Mou llic examines improvisational practices that can be specifically attributed to the cinema and argues in favors of their powers as instigators of unprecedented forms of expression Improvising Cinema reflects both on the permanence of attempting improvisation and the relationship between technology and aesthetics Mou llic concludes preservation becomes even more invaluable in the case of improvisation as the creative act exists only within the brief time span of the performance Godard and the Essay Film Rick Warner, 2018-07-15 Godard and the Essay Film offers a history and analysis of the essay film one of the most significant forms of intellectual filmmaking since the end of World War II Warner incisively reconsiders the defining traits and legacies of this still evolving genre through a groundbreaking examination of the vast and formidable oeuvre of Jean Luc Godard The essay film has often been understood by scholars as an eccentric development within documentary but Warner shows how an essayistic process of thinking can materialize just as potently within narrative fiction films through self critical investigations into the aesthetic political and philosophical resources of the medium Studying examples by Godard and other directors such as Orson Welles Chris Marker Agn s Varda and Harun Farocki Warner elaborates a fresh account of essayistic reflection that turns on the imaginative constructive role of the viewer Through fine grained analyses this book contributes the most nuanced description yet of the relational interface between viewer and screen in the context of the essay film Shedding new light on Godard s work from the 1960s to the 2010s in film television video and digital stereoscopy Warner distills an understanding of essayistic cinema as a shared exercise of critical rumination and perceptual discovery

American Culture in the 1950s Martin Halliwell, 2007-03-13 This book provides a stimulating account of the dominant cultural forms of 1950s America fiction and poetry theatre and performance film and television music and radio and the visual arts Through detailed commentary and focused case studies of influential texts and events from Invisible Man to West Side Story from Disneyland to the Seattle World s Fair from Rear Window to The Americans the book examines the way in which modernism and the cold war offer two frames of reference for understanding the trajectory of postwar culture The two core aims of this volume are to chart the changing complexion of American culture in the years following World War II and to provide readers with a critical investigation of the 1950s The book provides an intellectual context for approaching 1950s American culture and considers the historical impact of the decade on recent social and cultural developments

Narrative Mortality Catherine Russell, 1995 Analyzes New Wave cinema from a postmodern perspective What seems like closure might be something more as Catherine Russell shows us in this book about death in narrative cinema since the 1950s Analyzing the structural importance of death in narrative endings as well as the thematics of loss and redemption Russell identifies mortality as a valuable critical tool for understanding the cinema of the second half of the twentieth century Her work includes close textual readings of films by Fritz Lang Wim Wenders Oshima Nagisa Jean Luc Godard and Robert Altman among others In these analyses Russell reveals an uneasy relationship between death and closure which she traces to anxieties about identity gender and national cultural myths as well as to the persistence of desire Drawing on the work of Walter Benjamin she shows us death as a fundamentally allegorical structure in cinema and as a potential sign of historical difference with crucial implications for theories of film narrative and spectatorship Narrative Mortality provides fresh insight into the dynamics of postmodern cinema as it emerged from the modernist preoccupation with existential mortality By tracing the role of death from a work that precedes the Brechtian cinema of the 1960s Beyond a Reasonable Doubt to several that succeed it Nashville The State of Things the book expands the narrative project of New Wave cinema and ushers it onto a broader historical plane
