Robert Lowells Shifting Colors The Poetics Of The Public And The Personal:

Robert Lowell's Shifting Colors William Doreski, 1999 Following the course of Lowell's poetic development Doreski argues that the ambiguity of Lowell's social and religious beliefs as far as the poems express them is functional and that the formal restraints of Lowell's poems serve to reveal rather than mask the difficulties he found in formulating public and private values BOOK JACKET

With Robert Lowell and His Circle Kathleen Spivack, 2012 In 1959 Kathleen Spivack won a fellowship to study at Boston University with Robert Lowell Her fellow students were Sylvia Plath and Anne Sexton among others Thus began a relationship with the famous poet and his circle that would last to the end of his life in 1977 and beyond Spivack presents a lovingly rendered story of her time among some of the most esteemed artists of a generation Part memoir part loose collection of anecdotes artistic considerations and soulful yet clear-eyed reminiscences of a lost time and place hers is an intimate portrait of the often suffering Lowell the great and near great artists he attracted his teaching methods his private world and the significant legacy he left to his students Through the story of a youthful artist finding her poetic voice among literary giants Spivack thoughtfully considers how poets work She looks at friendships addiction despair perseverance and survival and how social changes altered lives and circumstances This is a beautifully written portrait of friends who loved and lived words and made great beauty together A touching and deeply revealing look into the lives and thoughts of some of the most influential artists of the twentieth century With Robert Lowell and His Circle will appeal to writers students and thoughtful literary readers as well as to scholars

Written by a leading authority on William Carlos Williams this book provides a wide ranging and stimulating guide to twentieth century American poetry A wide ranging and stimulating critical guide to twentieth century American poetry Written by a leading authority on the innovative modernist poet William Carlos Williams Explores the material historical and social contexts in which twentieth century American poetry was produced Includes a biographical dictionary of major writers with extended entries on poets ranging from Robert Frost to Adrienne Rich Contains a section on key texts considering major works such as The Waste Land North South Howl and Ariel The final section draws out key themes such as American poetry politics and war and the process of anthologizing at the end of the century Shades of Authority Stephen James, 2007-01-01

What is the relationship between poetry and power Should poetry be considered a mode of authority or an impotent medium And why is it that the modern poets most commonly regarded as authoritative are precisely those whose works wrestle with a sense of artistic inadequacy Such questions lie at the heart of Shades of Authority prompting fresh insights into three of the most important poets of recent decades Robert Lowell Geoffrey Hill and Seamus Heaney Through attentive close readings James shows how their responsiveness to matters of political and cultural import lends weight to the idea of poetry as authoritative utterance but also how each is exercised by a sense of the limitations and liabilities of language itself Harvard Review , 1999 From Tragedy to Apocalypse in American Literature Lin Atnip, 2024-06-15

From Tragedy to Apocalypse in American Literature Reading to Make Sense of Our Endings argues that imaginative literature is essential to comprehending contemporary threats to the survival of the human species and the preservation of our humanity Atnip outlines a theory of reading which directs us to realities and imperatives that are ignored denied or distorted by dominant social conventions and habits of cognition She then puts this theory into practice through readings of postwar American works by Robert Lowell Wallace Stevens Cormac McCarthy and Norman Maclean This book argues that these texts collectively educate us to a new ground of sense the apocalyptic sublime and the need for an unending effort to comprehend what it means to live a human life against this inhuman background American Writers Classics Jay
