Robert Fergusson Teas 24:

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1972 Robert Burns and Pastoral Nigel Leask,2010-07 This book restores the long marginalised Scottish poet Robert Burns to his rightful place as a major poet of the 18th century and Romantic period It discusses his education as a farmer during the revolutionary period of improvement in 18th century Scotland decision to write Scots pastoral poetry and influence on Wordsworth and Coleridge Artful Virtue: The Interplay of the Beautiful and the Good in the Scottish Enlightenment Leslie Ellen Brown,2016-03-09 During the Scottish Enlightenment the relationship between aesthetics and ethics became deeply ingrained beauty was the sensible manifestation of virtue the fine arts represented the actions of a virtuous mind to deeply understand artful and natural beauty was to identify with moral beauty and the aesthetic experience was indispensable in making value judgments This book reveals the history of how the Scots applied the vast landscape of moral philosophy to the specific territories of beauty in nature aesthetics and ethics in the eighteenth century The author explores a wide variety of sources from academic lectures and institutional record to more popular texts such as newspapers and pamphlets to show how the idea that beauty and art made individuals and society more virtuous was elevated and understood in Scottish society Representing Place in British Literature and Culture, 1660-1830 Professor Evan Gottlieb,Professor Juliet Shields,2013-04-28 Revising traditional rise of the nation state narratives this collection explores the development of and interactions among various forms of local national and transnational identities and affiliations during the long eighteenth century By treating place as historically contingent and socially constructed this volume examines how Britons experienced and related to a landscape altered by agricultural and industrial modernization political and religious reform migration and the building of nascent overseas empires In mapping the literary and cultural geographies of the long eighteenth century the volume poses three challenges to common critical assumptions about the relationships among genre place and periodization First it questions the novel's exclusive hold on the imagining of national communities by examining how poetry drama travel writing and various forms of prose fiction each negotiated the relationships between the local national and global in distinct ways Second it demonstrates how viewing the literature and culture of the long eighteenth century through a broadly conceived lens of place brings to the foreground authors typically considered minor when seen through more traditional aesthetic cultural or theoretical optics Finally it contextualizes Romanticism's long standing associations with the local and the particular suggesting that literary localism did not originate in the Romantic era but instead emerged from previous literary and cultural explorations of space and place Taken together the essays work to displace the nation state as a central category of literary and cultural analysis in eighteenth century studies The Life of Robert Burns James Currie,1838 All about Tea William Harrison Ukers,1935 The London and China Telegraph ,1867 From Compositors to Collectors John Hinks,Matthew Day,2012 The essays in this collection trace texts from their creation and printing through to their publication dissemination and collection In doing so they show how production processes change texts and how collectors subsequently appropriate them for their own ends By examining the diverse activities of those involved in both textual creation and collection over a long period these essays highlight both continuities and changes in the book trade Taken together this collection offers considerable new insights into many facets of the book trade ranging from creation to consumption This newest addition to the Print Networks series includes nineteen essays from leading book history scholars including Mariko Nagase Daniel Cook Stephen Brown Brian Hillyard Catherine Delafield Rob Allen Rachel Bower Iain Beavan and more The composers section covers everything from The Mayor of Quinborough published in 1661 to My Name is Salma published in 2007 Essays on collectors include Dr James Fraser Titus Wheatcroft Sir Walter Scott the USA Armed Services and more The book is illustrated throughout in black and white Available in the UK from The British Library

Language and Relationship in Wordsworth's Writing Michael Baron,2014-10-13 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth's later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included
