Blackwell, 2015-12-08 Since Russian tradition and institutions resemble those of Asia and Africa as much if not more than the patterns of Western societies the pre 1917 industrial history of Russia as the last part of the tsarist regime provides one of the most important examples of early industrialization in world history In this broad ambitious reconstruction of the early stages of Russia s industrial development English Professor Blackwell shows that the period from 1800 to 1860 was one of necessary preparation for the rapid industrialization of the later 19th century The book is based upon a wide variety of primary and secondary sources in the Russian language Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Russo-Turkish War: including an account of the rise and decline of the Ottoman power and the history of the eastern question Henry Montague Hozier, 1878 The New Migration in Europe Khalid Koser, Helma Lutz, 1998-06-12 Recent migration in Europe has a whole range of characteristics which are said to distinguish it from earlier migration and the description new migration is often used Based on a wide range of empirical case studies of the new migration this book asks three critical questions To what extent is the description new conceptually valid How is the new migration defined and by whom How is the new migration experienced by migrants themselves
