

The background of the cover is a painting of a woman with dark hair in a bun, wearing a long, flowing blue dress with a white collar and cuffs. She is sitting on a wooden bench or ledge, looking towards the viewer with a slight smile. The setting is outdoors, with a green landscape and a cloudy sky in the background. The painting style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a soft, dappled light effect.

Russian Genre Painting in the Nineteenth Century Rosalind Polly Blakesley, 2000 This book addresses the little studied area of Russian genre painting in the first three quarters of the nineteenth century Rosalind Gray begins by examining artistic patronage and published texts which engaged with the visual arts in order to illustrate the context in which Russian artists were working Five major painters Venetsianov Bryullov Ivanov Fedotov and Perov are then discussed in detail Dr Gray identifies the vital contribution which these artists made to Russian intellectual life as genre painting was appropriated as a medium in the dissemination of popular values and social change At the same time the relationship between Russian and European art is explored The book demonstrates that far from being a self contained movement Russian genre painting instead engaged in a fluid and complex dialogue with the art of the West The Ballets Russes and Its World Lynn Garafola, Nancy Van Norman Baer, Nancy Baer, 1999-01-01 The dance art music and cultural worlds of the Ballets Russes a dance company which helped define the avant garde in the early part of this century are surveyed in this book which begins with Serge Diaghilev s influence 200 illustrations Russian Pictures, Works of Art, and Icons Sotheby's (Firm), 1993
