Krystyna Pomorska,1971 Volume 2 of this anthology brings together stories by Russian writers of the period after 1953 A History of Russian Literary Theory and Criticism Evgeny Dobrenko,Galin Tihanov,2011-11-27 This edited volume assembles the work of leading international scholars in a comprehensive history of Russian literary theory and criticism from 1917 to the post Soviet age By examining the dynamics of literary criticism and theory in three arenas political intellectual and institutional the authors capture the progression and structure of Russian literary criticism and its changing function and discourse The chapters follow early movements such as formalism the Bakhtin Circle Proletkult futurism the fellow travelers and the Russian Association of Proletarian Writers By the cultural revolution of 1928 literary criticism became a mechanism of Soviet policies synchronous with official ideology The chapters follow theory and criticism into the 1930s with examinations of the Union of Soviet Writers semantic paleontology and socialist realism under Stalin A more humanized literary criticism appeared during the ravaging years of World War II only to be supplanted by a return to the party line Soviet heroism and anti Semitism in the late Stalinist period During Khrushchev s Thaw there was a remarkable rise in liberal literature and criticism that was later refuted in the nationalist movement of the long 1970s The same decade saw on the other hand the rise to prominence of semiotics and structuralism Postmodernism and a strong revival of academic literary studies have shared the stage since the start of the post Soviet era For the first time anywhere this collection analyzes all of the important theorists and major critical movements during a tumultuous ideological period in Russian history including developments in emigre literary theory and criticism
