Preliminary Material B G D H W Z X Y K L M N S C F Q R T Selective Bibilography Arabs in the Early Islamic Empire Brian Ulrich,2019-05-09 Examining a single broad tribal identity al Azd from the immediate pre Islamic period into the early Abbasid era this book notes the ways it was continually refashioned over that time It explores the ways in which the rise of the early Islamic empire influenced the peoples of the Arabian Peninsula who became a core part of it and examines the connections between the kinship societies and the developing state of the early caliphate This helps us to understand how what are often called tribal forms of social organisation identity conditioned its growth and helped shape what became its common elite culture Studying the relationship between tribe and state during the first two centuries of the caliphate author Brian Ulrich s focus is on understanding the survival and transformation of tribal identity until it became part of the literate high culture of the Abbasid caliphate and a component of a larger Arab ethnic identity He argues that from pre Islamic Arabia to the caliphate greater continuity existed between tribal identity and social practice than is generally portrayed

Humanism, Culture, and Language in the Near East Georg Krotkoff,1997-01-01 Essays by 33 colleagues friends and students of the Johns Hopkins University Arabist and linguist Topics include 1 humanism culture and literature 2 Arabic 3 Aramaic and 4 Afroasiatic Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament G. Johannes Botterweck,Helmer Ringgren,Heinz-Josef Fabry,1974 Analyzes the meaning of Hebrew terms used in the Old Testament considering their occurrences in ancient Near Eastern texts The Places Where Men Pray Together Paul Wheatley,2001 What makes a city an economic political and cultural center In The Places Where Men Pray Together Paul Wheatley draws on two decades of astonishingly wide ranging research to demonstrate that Islamic cities are defined by function rather than form by what they do rather than what they are Focusing on the roles of cities during the first four centuries of Islamic expansion Wheatley explores interconnected cultural historical economic political and religious factors to provide the clearest and most extensively documented portrait of early Islamic urban centers available to date Building on the tenth century geographer al Maqdisi s writings on urban centers of the Islamic world buttressed by extensive comparative material from roadbooks topographies histories adab literatures and gazetteers of the time Wheatley identifies the main functions of different Islamic urban centers Chapters on each of the thirteen centers that al Maqdisi identified ranging from the Atlantic to the Indus and from the Caspian to the Sudan form the heart of this book In each case Wheatley shows how specific agglomeration and accessibility factors combined to make every city functionally distinct as a creator of effective space He also demonstrates that far from revolutionizing every aspect of life in these cities the adoption of Islam often affected the development of these cities less than previously existing local traditions

Nineteenth century philologist and Biblical critic William Robertson Smith famously concluded that the sacred status of holy places derives not from their intrinsic nature but from their social character Building upon this insight Mecca and Eden uses Islamic exegetical and legal texts to analyze the rituals and objects associated with the sanctuary at Mecca Integrating Islamic examples into the comparative study of religion Brannon Wheeler shows how the treatment of rituals relics and territory is related to the more general mythological depiction of the origins of Islamic civilization Along the way Wheeler considers the contrast between Mecca and Eden in Muslim rituals the dispersal and collection of relics of the prophet Muhammad their relationship to the sanctuary at Mecca and long tombs associated with the gigantic size of certain prophets mentioned in the Quran Mecca and Eden succeeds as few books have done in making Islamic sources available to the broader study of religion Ancient and Medieval Ethiopian History to 1270 Sergew Hable Selassie, 1972 This scholarly book describes what is known about Ethiopia from primary secondary sources A Handbook of Modern Arabic Historical Scholarship on the Ancient and Medieval Periods Amar S.
