prayer or worship or the sacraments or the reading of Scripture and so on in a way that is divorced from the doctrine of the Trinity or the Incarnation or the Resurrection Following on from its predecessor Love Makes No Sense each chapter in this book deals with central issues of Christian practice and presents an introduction to Christian doctrine without losing focus of the lived Christian life The book sets forth central aspects of Christian living and practice that are the natural expression of those doctrines when they are understood properly as a lived phenomenon

A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt,2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance Familiar Instructions on the Sacraments William Stone (of Southampton.),1881 Cradle of Redeeming Love John Saward,2011-03-18 Following up on his acclaimed Redeemer in the Womb John Saward returns to the mystery of Christ's Incarnation He draws upon the rich traditions of the Church as well as the writings of the great Christian mystics to create a work that is both new and old revolutionary and orthodox This profoundly moving meditation will aid any contemplation on the life of Christ The subject of this book is the objective and divinely revealed truth of the Nativity of Christ as proclaimed by His infallible and immaculate Bride It is the splendor of this truth of Love's noon in Nature's night which for two millennia has captivated the Fathers and Schoolmen and activated the genius of poets painters and musicians Illustrated with eight color paintings Combines Saward's usual profundity and precision with a treasure trove of texts from the tradition A comprehensive exposition of the Christmas
