Rewriting Maya Religion Garry G. Sparks, 2020-03-06 In Rewriting Maya Religion Garry Sparks examines the earliest religious documents composed by missionaries and native authors in the Americas including a reconstruction of the first original explicit Christian theology written in the Americas the nearly 900 page Theologia Indorum Theology for or of the Indians initially written in Mayan languages by Friar Domingo de Vico by 1554 Sparks traces how the first Dominican missionaries to the Maya repurposed native religious ideas myths and rhetoric in their efforts to translate a Christianity and how in this wake Kiche Maya elites began to write their own religious texts like the Popol Vuh This ethnohistory of religion critically reexamines the role and value of indigenous authority during the early decades of first contact between a Native American people and Christian missionaries Centered on the specific work of Dominicans among the Highland Maya of Guatemala in the decades prior to the arrival of the Catholic Reformation in the late sixteenth century the book focuses on the various understandings of religious analyses Hispano Catholic and Maya and their strategic exchanges reconfigurations and resistance through competing efforts of religious translation Sparks historically contextualizes Vico s theological treatise within both the wider set of early literature in Kichean languages and the intellectual shifts between late medieval thought and early modernity especially the competing theories of language ethnography and semiotics in the humanism of Spain and Mesoamerica at the time Thorough and original Rewriting Maya Religion serves as an ethnohistorical frame for continued studies on Highland Maya religious symbols discourse practices and logic dating back to the earliest documented evidence It will be of great significance to scholars of religion ethnohistory linguistics anthropology and Latin American history

Evangelism Renewed Henry H. Knight, 2025-04-08 Evangelism has entered a new day From the 1980s to the present a vast array of new forms of evangelism have emerged shaped and informed by theological reflection on the good news of Jesus Christ and the mission of God Rejecting the reduced and formulaic forms of evangelism typical of most of the twentieth century these newer approaches speak more of the reign and love of God relationship and community and both personal and social transformation They are very diverse but each has something to contribute to how we understand and practice evangelism This book is a doorway into these theologies of evangelism and their fresh and dynamic ways of sharing the good news

The Bread of Life: Or Saint Thomas Aquinas on the Adorable Sacrament of the Altar Saint Thomas

Aquinas, Aeterna Press, There is a very beautiful treatise of St Thomas Aquinas on the adorable Sacrament of the Altar It is hard to know which to admire more the fulness and precision of its arrangement or the way in which he brings in the words of the Holy Ghost from the Sacred Scriptures From this treatise and nearly always in its very words I have arranged these Meditations for the Servants of the Holy Ghost In fact all that was needed was to number or letter the divisions of the book so that they could be easily seen The prayers and thanksgivings I have added I have put the teaching of the Saint by itself and the words of the Holy Ghost by themselves In this I have only carried out what St Thomas has himself done in the treatise For the more part he has after stating and explaining his points put the texts by themselves referring to the first point the second point the third point and so on Putting them all together therefore is only carrying out what this Angelic Saint has done
