Christian Racki, 1998 Children Dancing in Bali Jonathan McIntosh, 2025-05-01 The question of power and agency between children and adults within the context of traditional Balinese dance remains multilayered While adults exercise authority over children in formal settings an alternative dynamic exists outside the confines of traditional performance contexts where children operate as artistic agents In this illuminating ethnographic study of Balinese dance traditions Jonathan McIntosh examines how children navigate the nexus of practice performance and power through the medium of Balinese culture From structured dance classes to gatherings that embrace popular music Children Dancing in Bali spotlights the creative potential of Balinese performance practices to negotiate identity and society Bridges to the Ancestors

The Kecak is one of the most well known dramatic dance performance practices on Bali It is based on stories from the Old Indian epic Ramayana performed by an ensemble of male and female solo dancers and accompanied by a group consisting of approximately 100 men who function both as musical accompaniment and living scenery that can be flexibly choreographed Since its genesis in the 1930s the Kecak has been almost solely performed in a tourist context This book gives a thorough analysis and description of the Kecak in its present form and explores how the Kecak became and stayed a tourist genre for more than 80 years The book is divided into two parts The first part focuses on the Kecak in its present form including musical choreographic and dramatic elements The connection between cultural tourism on Bali and Kecak performance practice is analyzed in detail including the dependency between tourism professionals and artists and ways of promoting the kecak Tourists perspectives on the Kecak are addressed separately The second part deals with the genesis and development of the Kecak from the 1930s onward Between Heaven and Earth Walther Tjon Pian Gi, 2018 In Between Heaven and Earth
