Sacred Dreams C. Cryss Brunner, 1999-04-23 Although women have dominated the teaching ranks at all levels of education since the turn of the century men occupy 93 percent of superintendency jobs Considering the nationwide concern that superintendency positions will be vacated faster than they can be filled during the next decade it is quite possible that women are the greatest untapped pool of capable candidates As women think about seek and accept superintendency assignments they need a resource like Sacred Dreams that offers both practical advice from those who have attained this rank and research results from those who have studied the situation Such an understanding has the potential not only to increase the number of women in the position but also to increase their likelihood of success Contributors include Judy A Alston Cynthia Beekley Jackie M Blount C Cryss Brunner Susan Chase Margaret Grogan Barbara L Jackson Debra Jackson Estelle Kamler Sylvia E M ndez Morse Flora Ida Ortiz Barbara Nelson Pavan Charol Shakeshaft and Marilyn Tallerico Also included is a foreword by Patricia A Schmuck Principles of Power C. Cryss Brunner, 2012-02-01 Women who seek to be school superintendents or who want to improve their chances for success in the superintendency can clearly benefit from the insights and cultural wisdom of women who have attained the position Principles of Power shares perspectives from twelve successful women superintendents and puts them in a cultural context that highlights what they can teach us about their methods for success To illustrate the underlying behaviors that helped them succeed Brunner uses as a framework the system of beliefs gathered by Carlos Castaneda from Yaqui Indian warrior training Castaneda calls this system the riddle of the heart To understand the riddle of the heart women must be able to simultaneously comprehend and use two different perceptions of the world that which is and that which is becoming To be able to solve the riddle warriors develop mind set and a discipline that allow them to get the best out of any conceivable situation This book is the story of these warriors twelve women superintendents and how they have solved the riddle of the heart Resources in Education , 2001-10

Leading Professional Practice in Education Christine Wise, Marion Cartwright, Pete Bradshaw, 2012-09-05 This volume provides an overview of key contemporary themes in educational leadership It focuses on developing professional capacity organisation improvement and the implementation of change looking at theoretical frameworks and concepts recent research studies and case examples of effective practice The book covers leading learning and learner leadership change processes and distributed leadership leading professional development for educational contexts Designed to encourage critical analysis and debate this volume will be a useful resource for postgraduate and professional development courses in educational leadership and for practitioners It is a companion to Educational Leadership Context Strategy and Collaboration also published by Sage Centennial Series of the Association of Former Students, Texas A and M University Kelley Marie King, 2010 In an era when the dominant ideology divided the world into separate public and private spheres and relegated women to the private Anna J Hardwicke Pennybacker ardently promoted progressive causes including public education women's suffrage social reform and the League of Nations A Texas educator clubwoman writer lecturer and social and political activist whose influence in the early twentieth century extended nationwide Pennybacker wrote A New History of Texas which was the state adopted textbook for Texas history from 1898 1913 and remained in classroom use until the 1940s She was also active in the burgeoning women's club movement and served as president of both the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation of Women's Clubs 1912 14 The latter position was considered by some to be the most powerful position for a woman in America at that time Kelley King has mined the fifty two linear feet of Pennybacker archives at the University of Texas Center for American History to reconstruct the hidden history of a feminist's life and work There she uncovered an impressive record of advocacy interlaced with a moderate style and some old fashioned biases King's work offers insight into the personal and political choices Pennybacker made and the effects these choices had in her life and on the American culture at large Journal of School Leadership ,2003 Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo?

Whitney Sherman Newcomb,2014-03-01 Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo Young and New Women Professors of Educational Leadership was conceptualized as a follow up to Breaking Into the All Male Club Female Professors of Educational Administration Mertz 2009 a book about and by many women who were the first women faculty admitted into departments of educational administration primarily in the 1970's and 1980's This book offers narratives of those women new to the field of educational leadership and makes comparisons to those stories shared by the veteran women in the field to highlight both similarities and differences Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo Young and New Women Professors of Educational Leadership is a literary way to preserve and continue the tradition of the sharing addition of voices to the field of educational leadership that was begun with Breaking Into the All Male Club It begs the question If the women from Breaking Into the All Male Club are firsts pioneers and groundbreakers then who are we the young and new women of the field If the entrance of women into the field of educational leadership was threatening enough for the veteran women and still is for many of the young and new women then the addition of age and ethnicity as confounding factors has likely created a cacophony of dissonance forty years later Continuing to Disrupt the Status Quo represents a decade of stories 2002 2012 from young and new women to the field of educational leadership Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff,1999-08 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999-04 American Book Publishing Record ,1999

Destined to Rule the Schools Jackie M. Blount,1998-03-19 Winner of the 1998 American Educational Studies Association Critics Choice Titles In 1909 when she became the superintendent of the Chicago schools Ella Flagg Young proclaimed that women were destined to rule the schools of every city After all women accounted for nearly eighty percent of all teachers by 1910 and their ascendance into formal school leadership positions could not be far behind After World War II however a backlash against single women educators and a rigid realignment of gender roles in schools contributed to a rapid decline of women school administrators across the country a decline from which there has been little recovery to the present Destined to Rule the Schools tells the story of women and school leadership in America from the common school era to the present. In a broad sense it offers an historical account of how teaching became women's work and the school superintendency men's. Blount explores how power in school employment has been structured unequally by gender. It focuses on the superintendency because an important component of the effort to establish control of schools has occurred in contesting the definition of this position. Unique and important contributions of this volume include the only published comprehensive statistical study describing the number of women superintendents throughout the twentieth century; an analysis suggesting that the superintendency may have become an appointive position in part to remove it from the influence of newly enfranchised women voters; a discussion of the role of homophobia in creating and perpetuating rigid gender divisions in school employment; and a broad analysis that integrates the histories of teaching and school administration.
