The Purgatorio Dante Alighieri, 1906

Oration delivered before the Society of Californian Pioneers, at their celebration of the fifth anniversary of the admission of the State of California into the Union. Ode: by E. Pillet George Pen JOHNSTON, 1855

The Purgatorio of Dante

Alighieri Dante Alighieri, 1900 The second part of Dante's Divine Comedy following the Inferno and preceding the Paradiso. The poem was written in the early 14th century. It is an allegory telling of the climb of Dante up the Mount of Purgatory, guided by the Roman poet Virgil, except for the last four cantos at which point Beatrice takes over as Dante's guide. Purgatory in the poem is depicted as a mountain in the Southern Hemisphere consisting of a bottom section, Ante Purgatory, seven levels of suffering and spiritual growth associated with the seven deadly sins, and finally the Earthly Paradise at the top.

Allegorically, the Purgatorio represents the penitent Christian life. In describing the climb, Dante discusses the nature of sin, examples of vice and virtue, as well as moral issues in politics and in the Church. The poem outlines a theory that all sins arise from love, either perverted love directed towards others' harm or deficient love, or the disordered or excessive love of good things.

Classifying the Divine Racheli Shalomi-Hen, 2000 In recent years, cognitive aspects of the Egyptian writing system were studied, and the importance of the determinatives as category makers and as a reflection of the ancient Egyptian mind was realised. This study offers a fresh look at the divine determinatives and the category they form. It focuses on a group of five divine determinatives in Spell 335 of the Coffin Texts and Chapter 17 of the Book of the Dead. After discussing the transmission and themes of the texts, as well as theories of categorisation, the author proceeds to analyse the divine category which the five divine determinatives form. By identifying its prototypical members and by examining the relations between words and their divine determinatives, this book provides some crucial and thought-provoking insights into the Ancient Egyptian perception of the divine and is an important contribution to the understanding of the organisation of knowledge in general. The book concludes with a collation table that displays all the references to words written with divine determinatives in the texts, including hieroglyphic presentation of all the different variations of these words.
