A Sarong for Clio Maurizio Peleggi, 2018-08-06 A Sarong for Clio testifies to an ongoing intellectual dialogue between its ten contributors and Craig J Reynolds who inspired these essays. Conceived as a tribute to an innovative scholar, dedicated teacher and generous colleague, it is this volume's ambition to make a concerted intervention on Thai historiography and Thai studies more generally by pursuing in new directions ideas that figure prominently in Reynolds's scholarship. The writings gathered here revolve around two prominent themes in Reynolds's scholarship: the nexus of historiography and power and Thai political and business cultures often so intertwined as to be difficult to separate. The chapters examine different types of historical texts: Thai political discourse and political culture and the media production of consumer culture.

The Art of Buddhism Denise Patry Leidy, 2009-10-06 As its teachings spread from the Indian subcontinent in all directions across Asia, Buddhism influenced every culture it touched, from Afghanistan to Korea, from Mongolia to Java. Buddhist art is a radiant reflection of the encounter of the Buddha's teachings with the diverse civilizations that came under their sway. It is also an intriguing visual record of the evolution of Buddhist practice and philosophy over a period of more than two millennia. More than two hundred photographs provide the visual context for this tour of the world of Buddhist art. Included in the rich variety of forms are architecture and monumental art, statuary, paintings, calligraphy, fresco, brushwork and textile arts. Denise Leidy's guide is the perfect introductory text for all those intrigued by this splendid aesthetic tradition. It is also an essential resource for all who seek to understand Buddhist art as teaching.

Claudine Bautze-Picron, 2010-12-01 This book represents a comprehensive study of The Bejewelled Buddha considering stylistic as well as iconographic issues A crucial moment in the Buddha's life seems to have been referred to through this image namely the sojourn on Mount Meru where the Buddha sat on Indra's seat and taught all the gods By occupying the seat of the king of the gods he was able to endorse the royal function of this deity this becomes particularly evident in the late fifth century and probably reflects the dramatic situation that the Buddhist community was confronted with i.e. the political power essentially fostering the Hindu religion and social structure Hence the Buddha is depicted as a perfect and powerful ruler sitting at the top of the universe and showing himself adorned as a king more than any human ruler the Buddha rules over the universe There is also another dimension that should never be neglected as in any other Indian cult worship of his image entailed offerings of various kinds such as flower garlands or jewels being made to the Buddha The image of the Bejewelled Buddha thus included various constituents while at the same time it was used as the locus where different religious or political concepts found a way of expression The result was the creation of an image of multi-layered significance which found its way into all Asian cultures Teaching South and Southeast Asian Art Bokyoung
