Security And Arms Control In The North Pacific:

Security & Arms Control in the North Pacific A. Mack, P. Keal, 2023-05-26 First published in 1988 Security others focus on particular issues the nuclear infrastructure controlling the arms trade confidence building and naval arms control A unifying theme of this collection is the tension between military and non military approaches to security between threat and reassurance and between deterrence and confidence building This comprehensive book is a must read for scholars and researchers of security studies defence studies international politics and diplomacy Security and Arms Control in the North Pacific Andrew Mack, Paul Keal, 1990-01-25 Despite the euphoria after the Intermediate Nuclear Forces Treaty the fundamental problems of nuclear great power rivalry remain Nowhere is this more apparent than in the north Pacific a relatively unexamined arena where the war machines of Russia China Japan and America confront each other in dramatic proximity This collection examines the implications of this potential trigger point for the countries of the Pacific Rim and for the global strategic balance Security and Arms Control in the North Pacific Bill Hayden, 1988 Security and Arms Control in the North Pacific Andrew Mack, Paul Keal, 1988 Papers from a conference on Security and arms control in the North Pacific held at the Australian National University in August 1987 Security and Arms Control in the North Pacific Andrew Mack, Paul Keal, 1988-01-01 Papers from a conference on Security and arms control in the North Pacific held at the Australian National University in August 1987 Security, Arms Control, and Conflict Reduction in East Asia and the Pacific, 1993-07-30 This is the most comprehensive bibliography to date on the vast English language literature covering the myriad aspects of peace and security issues in the East Asia Pacific region McClean contacted 150 key research institutions and publishers around the world for information about the most significant books articles dissertations and official documents on international and intra state security arms control conflict avoiding diplomacy and militarization in the area He has selectively annotated 12 645 cross referenced entries and organized them into 27 sub regional and country chapters including two particularly extensive chapters on Japan and China and two further chapters on relations between Australia New Zealand and the United States and on U S and Soviet policy Relocating Middle Powers Andrew Fenton Cooper, Richard A. Higgott, Kim Richard Nossal, 1993 The fall of the Berlin Wall and the disintegration of the Soviet Union were only two of the many events that profoundly altered the international political system in the late 1980s and early 1990s In a world no longer dominated by Cold War tensions nation states have had to rethink their international roles and focus on economic rather than military concerns This book examines how two middle powers Australia and Canada are grappling with the difficult process of relocating themselves in the rapidly changing international economy The authors argue that the concept of middle power has continuing relevance in contemporary international relations theory and they present a number of case studies to illustrate the changing nature of middle power behaviour Pacific Cooperation John Ravenhill, Vinod Aggarwal, Paul M Evans, Pauline Kerr, 2019-06-20 Long divided by cultural economic and political differences the Asia Pacific region has little history of multilateral cooperation Alliances that once linked individual countries with one or the other superpower fostered deep mistrust among neighbouring states The end of the Cold War however has created new opportunities for multilateral coo Confidence Building Measures In The Middle East Gabriel Ben-dor,2019-03-11 Confidence Building Measures CBMs were pioneered in Europe at the height of the Cold War The immediate goal of such measures is to create enough trust between parties in international conflicts to avoid mutually unfavourable sometimes dangerous outcomes due to misunderstandings The long term goal of CBMs is to move the contending parties closer

ASEAN's Cooperative Security Enterprise H. Katsumata,2010-01-20 Katsumata demonstrates that something interesting is taking place inside the ASEAN Regional Forum ARF He shows that an association of minor powers in Southeast Asia is promoting its cooperative security norm and influencing the policies of its external partners Thus the ARF is one of the important pathways to regional security East Asian Security Michael Edward Brown,Sean M. Lynn-Jones,Steven E. Miller,1996 East Asian Security examines some of the most important strategic questions about the future of East Asia It includes provocative essays that explore the overall prospects for war peace and stability in the region Other essays focus on the likely strategies that China and Japan will pursue at the dawn of the next millennium Students scholars and analysts of contemporary issues will find East Asian Security to be a stimulating and valuable overview of these questions From Coexistence to Cooperation Edward McWhinney,Douglas Ross,Grigory Tunkin,Vladien Vereshchetin,2023-11-27 In four short years the international landscape has been completely reorganized The major political fault line of the Cold War has been for the most part erased and the foundations have been laid for an entirely new era in international relations Serious focused analysis is urgently needed to help facilitate the process of ending the Cold War This volume the product of a Canada Soviet bilateral conference of jurists and other scholars specialized in International Law and International Organizatin and International Conflicts Resolution held at Simon Fraser University Vancouver in June 1990 attempts to provide such analysis Written by a professionally and scientifically distinguished team of Canadian and Soviet experts it deals with such issues as the winding up of the Nuclear and General Disarmament process the current main proposals on strengtning the United Nations and on reforming and modernizing its main arenas and institutions new approaches to International Trade and Commerce on a multilateral basis developing new norms of International Environmental Protection Law and the Intrnational protection of Human Rights It is characterized above all by a common emphasis Soviet and Canadian on pragmatism and on a rigorously empirical problem oriented approach and offers not merely a description of international Law as it might now happen to exist The result is a suprisingly far ranging consensus not merely on the major World Community problems that should be deemed ripe for present study but also on their most desirable practical and realizable solutions The North Pacific Triangle Michael G. Fry,John J. Kirton,Mitsuru Kurosawa,1998-01-01 A collection of essays written by scholars and policymakers from the countries involved explores the evolving alliance among Canada Japan and the United States The book examines the three market oriented democracies in their changing roles toward each other and show how they have moved beyond their separate special bilateral relationships into a dynamic three way engagement The Growing Interest in Asia-Pacific Arms Control Issues Andrew Mack, Andrew McClean, 1989 Weapons Proliferation in the 1990s Brad Roberts, 1995 The proliferation of weapons of mass destruction has emerged as a major topic of international security in the post Cold War world This compendium of articles published in The Washington Quarterly between 1991 and 1995 describes the changing nature of the problem discusses new trends in nonproliferation and counterproliferation policy identifies new arms control challenges at the regional and global levels and concludes by addressing the global politics of proliferation Theorizing Southeast Asian Relations Amitav Acharya, Richard Stubbs, 2013-10-31 The recent proliferation of theories of international relations has transformed analyses of Southeast Asia's international affairs A new generation of scholars has promoted a lively and illuminating debate which has seen the traditional realist neorealist approach which continues to hold centre stage challenged by constructivist analyses In turn constructivists have found themselves under fire from an array of competing approaches This collection engages this emerging debate It underscores the point that Southeast Asia is now an important site for applying new theories of international relations It also demonstrates that theoretical frameworks originally developed in North America and Europe have to be adapted to the specific circumstances found in places like Southeast Asia and that this process can enrich theory building The chapters in this book focus on the realist neorealist constructivist English School and critical approaches The resulting debate helps to shed light on ways of analysing Southeast Asian relations as well as on the evolution of these key theoretical frameworks This book was published as a special issue of The Pacific Review

Weapons Proliferation and World Order Brad Roberts, 2023-09-29 With the end of the Cold War the subject of weapons proliferation has acquired new interest and prominence So too have questions about the nature of the world order that will succeed the structure of the last fifty years This study explores the connections among these topics It describes the prevailing conceptual model of nuclear proliferation evaluates proliferation's changing technical features considers economic and political factors bearing on its future rate and character and speculates about proliferation's implications on the post cold war world order It also considers the role of international public policy in meeting proliferation's challenges Arguing that updated approaches are needed the analysis emphasizes cooperative over coercive approaches to order It concludes with an assessment of progress to date in meeting these new challenges arguing that the new agenda is only slowly coming into focus Arms Control in the North Pacific James A. Boutilier, 1993 This document contains papers on global uncertainty arms control and conflict resolution on the Korean peninsula lessons to be learned from the Helsinki Process key elements of a conceptual approach to confidence building arms control verification on the Korean Peninsula non proliferation in the North Pacific region overhead imagery and its role in verification the open skies regime open skies in the Korean context and the security balance and nuclear issues on the Korean Peninsula It also presents a chronology of events related to arms control and reunification on the Korean Peninsula from December 1991 December 1992
