

The party exerts dominance over the private sector – accepting significant economic costs

The waves of regulatory action against major Chinese companies have obliterated more than USD one trillion in stock value. One of the most prominent examples was the regulators' willingness to derail a major IPO with an investigation into cross-border data security at China's ride-hailing giant Didi, just days after its USD 4.4 billion New York listing in mid-2021. New rules on data transfer followed.³⁴

Concerns over what can be peeked into from abroad have been an underlying concern in a series of cases. Chinese companies, including state-owned enterprises, are under pressure to delist from US stock exchanges over data provision and auditing requirements, although negotiations are under way. A security review of information shared by China's biggest scientific publication platform, CNKI, in mid-2022 is another case in point.³⁵
